NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

1. At the 111th plenary meeting of its fortieth session, on 10 December 1985, the General Assembly adopted resolution 40/64, entitled "Policies of apartheid of the Government of South Africa". 1/

2. In paragraph 7 of resolution A, the General Assembly

"Again calls upon the Security Council urgently to take action under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations with a view to applying comprehensive and mandatory sanctions against South Africa and, in particular:

(a) To review the implementation of and to re-enforce the mandatory arms embargo against South Africa adopted by its resolution 418 (1977) of 4 November 1977;

(b) To strengthen the voluntary embargo on the imports of arms from South Africa adopted by its resolution 558 (1984) of 13 December 1984 by rendering it mandatory and extending it to cover the imports of related materials in addition to arms and ammunitions;

(c) To prohibit all co-operation with South Africa, particularly in the military and nuclear fields, by Governments, corporations, institutions and individuals;

(d) To impose a total ban on all forms of nuclear collaboration with South Africa, including effective embargoes on the imports of South African and Namibian uranium and on the export and supply of nuclear material, equipment or technology to South Africa;

(e) To impose an effective embargo on the supply of oil and oil products to South Africa and on all assistance to the oil industry in South Africa, particularly to the oil from coal industry;

(f) To prohibit financial loans and credits to and investment in South Africa;

(g) To ban all trade with South Africa".

3. In paragraph 15 of resolution B, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council, as a matter of urgency, to consider the serious situation in South Africa emanating from the imposition of the so-called "new constitution" and the state of emergency and to take all necessary measures, in accordance with Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, to avert the further aggravation of tension and conflict in South Africa and in southern Africa as a whole".

4. In paragraphs 5 and 6 of resolution I, the General Assembly

"5. Urges the Security Council to consider without delay the adoption of effective mandatory sanctions against South Africa;

"6. Further urges the Security Council to take steps for the strict implementation of the mandatory arms embargo instituted by its resolution 418 (1977) and of the arms embargo requested in its resolution 558 (1984) and, within the context of the relevant resolutions, to secure an end to military and nuclear co-operation with South Africa and the import of military equipment or supplies from South Africa".
