Assistance to women refugees the world over

1. The following recommendations are addressed primarily to the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and, within their field of competence or special interest, to the organizations of the United Nations, the specialized agencies, Governments, international, regional and intergovernmental organizations, non-governmental organizations, women's groups and other groups.

2. The United Nations High Commissioner, in assisting women refugees, should deal with all phases of refugee life: relief, local integration, resettlement and repatriation.

3. The assistance provided should be channelled through the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, and should include the following categories of assistance:
