At its 2990th meeting, on 30 May 1991, the Security Council resumed its consideration of the item, having before it the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force (UNDOF) covering the period 24 November 1990 to 20 May 1991 (S/22631 and Add.1).

The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution (S/22650), which had been prepared in the course of the Security Council's prior consultations.

The Security Council then proceeded to vote on the draft resolution (S/22650) and adopted it unanimously as resolution 695 (1991).

Resolution 695 (1991) reads as follows:

The Security Council,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force, 1/

Decides:

(a) To call upon the parties concerned to implement immediately Security Council resolution 338 (1973) of 22 October 1973;

(b) To renew the mandate of the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force for another period of six months, that is, until 30 November 1991;

1/ S/22631 and Add.1.

(c) To request the Secretary-General to submit, at the end of this period, a report on the developments in the situation and the measures taken to implement Security Council resolution 338 (1973).

Following the voting, the President of the Security Council stated that, in connection with the resolution just adopted on the renewal of the mandate of UNDOF, he had been authorized to make the following complementary statement on behalf of the Council (S/22657):

"As is known, the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force (S/22631 and Add.1) states, in paragraph 23: 'Despite the present quiet in the Israel-Syria sector, the situation in the Middle East as a whole continues to be potentially dangerous and is likely to remain so, unless and until a comprehensive settlement covering all aspects of the Middle East problem can be reached.' That statement of the Secretary-General reflects the view of the Security Council."

Letter dated 17 May 1991 from the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Mission of Angola to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

Report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Angola Verification Mission

In a letter dated 17 May 1991 addressed to the Secretary-General (S/22609), the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Mission of Angola to the United Nations requested that the letter dated 8 May 1991 from the Minister for External Relations of Angola to the Secretary-General be circulated as a document of the Security Council. In that letter, the Minister for External Relations formally informed the Secretary-General that the Government of Angola and the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola (UNITA) had signed on 1 May 1991 a set of documents establishing the principles for the implementation of peace in Angola, and, in the meantime, requested that the Secretary-General take action to ensure the participation of the United Nations in verifying the implementation of the Peace Accord for Angola to which both sides had agreed, and a copy of which was enclosed, and also that the Secretary-General inform the Security Council of the necessity to keep the forces of the United Nations Angola Verification Mission (UNAVEM) until the realization of the general elections scheduled to take place between September and November 1992.

The Security Council met to consider the item at its 2991st meeting, on 30 May 1991, in accordance with the understanding reached in the Council's prior consultations, having also before it the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Angola Verification Mission contained in documents S/22627 and Add.1, dated 20 and 29 May 1991.

The President, with the consent of the Security Council, invited the representatives of Angola and Portugal, at their request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote.

The President drew attention to the draft resolution contained in document S/22652, which had been prepared in the course of the Security Council's prior consultations.

The Security Council then proceeded to vote on the draft resolution (S/22652) and adopted it unanimously as resolution 696 (1991).

Resolution 696 (1991) reads as follows:

The Security Council,

Welcoming the decision of the Government of the People's Republic of Angola and the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola to conclude the "Acordos de Paz para Angola",

Stressing the importance it attaches to the signing of the "Acordos de Paz para Angola" and to the fulfilment by the parties in good faith of the obligations contained therein,

Stressing further the importance of all States refraining from taking any actions which could undermine the agreements mentioned above and contributing to their implementation as well as respecting fully the independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity of Angola,

Noting with satisfaction the decision taken by the Governments of the People's Republic of Angola and the Republic of Cuba to complete the withdrawal, ahead of schedule, of all Cuban troops from Angola by 25 May 1991 (S/22644),

Considering the request submitted to the Secretary-General of the United Nations by the People's Republic of Angola in its letter dated 8 May 1991 (S/22609),

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General dated 20 May 1991 (S/22627) and the addendum dated 29 May 1991 (S/22627/Add.1),

Taking into account that the mandate of the United Nations Angola Verification Mission (UNAVEM) established by Security Council resolution 626 (1988) of 20 December 1988 expires on 22 July 1991,

1. Approves the report of the Secretary-General dated 20 May 1991 (S/22627) and the addendum dated 29 May 1991 (S/22627/Add.1) and the recommendations therein;

2. Decides accordingly to entrust a new mandate to the United Nations Angola Verification Mission (UNAVEM) (henceforth UNAVEM II) as proposed by the Secretary-General in line with the "Acordos de Paz para Angola" and requests the Secretary-General to take the necessary steps to this effect;

3. Further decides to establish UNAVEM II for a period of 17 months from the date of adoption of this resolution in order to accomplish the objectives stated in the report of the Secretary-General (S/22627);

4. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the Security Council immediately after the signature of the "Acordos de Paz para Angola" and to keep the Council fully informed of further developments.
