3 November 1971

The text of resolution A.250 (VII) concerning the implementation of the United Nations General Assembly resolutions on apartheid and decolonization and the relations with South Africa and Portugal, adopted by the Assembly of IMCO at its seventh session held between 5 and 15 October 1971, is reproduced below for the information of the General Assembly:

Implementation of United Nations General Assembly resolutions on apartheid and on the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples

The Assembly,

Having examined document A VII/26, resolutions 2555 (XXIV), 2671 (XXV), 2704 (XXV) and 2707 (XXV) and other relevant resolutions of the General Assembly of the United Nations concerning the policies of apartheid of the Government of South Africa, the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples by the specialized agencies and the question of Territories under Portuguese administration,

Considering that neither South Africa nor Portugal is a member of the organization and that neither of these States receives any assistance from IMCO,

Recognizing the need to co-operate as closely as possible with the General Assembly of the United Nations,

Decides in the light of the above to instruct the Secretary-General to inform the appropriate authorities of the United Nations that current IMCO practice is not inconsistent with the practice of the United Nations General Assembly.
