A. Introduction

1. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February 1991, by adopting the suggestions relating to the organization of its work put forward by the Chairman (A/AC.109/L.1755), the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to allocate the following 13 Territories for consideration by the Subcommittee on Small Territories: American Samoa, Anguilla, Bermuda, British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Guam, Montserrat, Tokelau, Turks and Caicos Islands, United States Virgin Islands, Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, Pitcairn and St. Helena.

2. At its 1379th meeting, on 23 April 1991, following statements by the representatives of Norway, Papua New Guinea, Czechoslovakia, Venezuela, the United Republic of Tanzania, Cuba, Sierra Leone, New Zealand and Trinidad and Tobago, as well as by the Chairman, the Special Committee decided to establish an open-ended Working Group to conduct an in-depth study on the Committee's approach, methods and procedures and to make recommendations thereon to the Special Committee. At the same meeting, the Special Committee appointed Mr. Renagi Renagi Lohia (Papua New Guinea), Chairman of the Subcommittee on Petitions, Information and Assistance, as Chairman of the Working Group. The Working Group met from 29 April 1991 to 23 May 1991.

3. At the 1380th meeting, on 24 May 1991, the Chairman of the above-mentioned Working Group introduced the report of the Working Group (A/AC.109/L.1756). Following statements by the Acting Chairman and the representative of Norway (A/AC.109/PV.1380), the Special Committee adopted the report of the Working Group and endorsed the recommendations contained therein which included the consolidation into an omnibus resolution, of the decolonization principles that apply to all Non-Self-Governing Territories, followed by a series of short draft resolutions on each of the following 10 Territories: American Samoa, Anguilla, Bermuda, British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Guam, Montserrat, Tokelau, Turks and Caicos Islands and United States Virgin Islands.

4. The present chapter contains an account of the Special Committee's consideration of the 13 Territories (see sect. B), as well as its recommendations thereon to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session (see sect. D).

5. In its consideration of the items, the Special Committee took into account the provisions of General Assembly resolution 45/34 of 20 November 1990 on the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples. By paragraph 12 of that resolution, the Assembly requested the Committee "to continue to seek suitable means for the immediate and full implementation of General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) in all Territories that have not yet attained independence and, in particular ... to continue to pay special attention to the small Territories, in particular through the dispatch of visiting missions to those Territories whenever the Special Committee deems it appropriate, and to recommend to the General Assembly the most suitable steps to be taken to enable the populations of those Territories to exercise their right to self-determination and independence". The Committee also took into account relevant resolutions and decisions adopted by the Assembly on the Territories as well as Assembly resolution 45/33 of 20 November 1990 on the thirtieth anniversary of the Declaration.

6. In their capacity as administering Powers concerned and in accordance with established procedures, the delegations of New Zealand and the United States of America continued to participate in the work of the Special Committee; New Zealand in relation to Tokelau, and the United States to American Samoa, the United States Virgin Islands and Guam. The latter delegation did not take part in the Committee's consideration of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

7. The delegation of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, an administering Power concerned, did not participate in the Special Committee's consideration of the Territories under its administration. 1/

Conscious of the particular vulnerability of the small Territories to natural disasters and environmental degradation,

Recalling the dispatch in 1976 of a United Nations visiting mission to the Territory,

Noting the substantial proportion of land owned by expatriates and the concerns of local groups and individuals over the sale of land to foreigners, which could give rise to environmental issues and which interferes with the right of the local people to free access to their beaches,

Aware that large tracts of land in the Territory continue to be reserved for the use of the Department of Defense of the administering Power,

Taking note that the administering Power has undertaken a programme of transferring surplus federal land to the Government of Guam,

Noting the potential for diversifying and developing the economy of Guam through commercial fishing and agriculture,

Taking note of the statement of the representative of the administering Power regarding the presence of military bases and installations in the Territory,

Recalling the dispatch in 1979 of a United Nations visiting mission to the Territory,

1. 4. Expresses the hope that Palau, the only remaining Territory under the Trusteeship Agreement, will be able to complete the process of exercising its right to self-determination in due course;

5. Takes note of the fact that the Trusteeship Council, at its fifty-eighth session, welcomed the assurance of the Administering Authority that it was prepared to assist the Government of Palau, at its request, in any appropriate endeavour leading to the final determination of a political status for Palau, in accordance with the free choice of its people, 7/ and calls upon the Administering Authority to discharge its responsibilities in that connection, in strict conformity with the provisions of the Charter, particularly Article 83, and the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples;

The Assembly urges the administering Power to continue to respect the very individual lifestyle that the people of the Territory have chosen and to preserve, promote and protect it. The Assembly requests the Special Committee to continue to examine the question of Pitcairn at its next session and to report thereon to the Assembly at its forty-seventh session.

DRAFT DECISION II

Question of St. Helena

The General Assembly, having examined the relevant chapters of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, 8/ reaffirms the inalienable right of the people of St. Helena to self-determination and independence in conformity with the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960. The Assembly urges the administering Power, in consultation with the Legislative Council and other representatives of the people of St. Helena, to continue to take all necessary steps to ensure the speedy implementation of the Declaration in respect of the Territory and, in that connection, reaffirms the importance of promoting an awareness among the people of St. Helena of the possibilities open to them in the exercise of their right to self-determination. The Assembly expresses the view that the administering Power should continue to implement infrastructure and community development projects aimed at improving the general welfare of the community, including the unemployment situation, and to encourage local initiative and enterprise, particularly in the areas of fisheries development, forestry, handicrafts and agriculture. The Assembly reaffirms that continued development assistance from the administering Power, together with any assistance that the international community might be able to provide, constitutes an important means of developing the economic potential of the Territory and of enhancing the capacity of its people to realize fully the goals set forth in the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations. The Assembly, in that connection, welcomes the assistance rendered by the United Nations Development Programme and invites other organizations of the United Nations system to assist in the development of the Territory. The continued presence of military facilities in the Territory prompts the Assembly, on the basis of previous United Nations resolutions and decisions concerning military bases and installations in colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories, to urge the administering Power to take measures to avoid the involvement of the Territory in offensive acts or interference against neighbouring States. The Assembly considers that the possibility of dispatching a United Nations visiting mission to St. Helena at an appropriate time should be kept under review, and requests the Special Committee to continue to examine the question of St. Helena at its next session, and to report thereon to the Assembly at its forty-seventh session.
