The text proposed by India, which was used as the working paper by the Committee, read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Having considered the work of the Special Committee on information transmitted under Article 73 e of the Charter which was constituted by resolution 219 (III) adopted by the General Assembly on 3 November 1948, and

"6. 37. The representative of France introduced an amendment to substitute the following for the text proposed by the representative of India:

"The General Assembly,

"Considering it desirable that in its future work the General Assembly should have the benefit of the experience gained by the members of the Special Committee during the present session;

"Decides to renew for 1950 the Special Committee's terms of reference constituted by resolution 219 (III)."

38. Later, this amendment was withdrawn by the representative of France and replaced by another amendment, which proposed that the words "for a three-year period" in paragraph 1 of the operative part of the Indian draft resolution should be replaced by the words "for a period of one year", and that the words "1950 and 1952" in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the operative part should be deleted.

45. The representative of Cuba presented an amendment to the revised paragraph 2 of the Indian draft resolution and, after discussion, the representative of India accepted this amendment in a revised form. The Cuban amendment proposed that the following lines should be inserted after the semicolon in paragraph 2, replacing the words beginning with "when the elections":

DRAFT RESOLUTION PROPOSING THAT THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE CONCENTRATE ON ONE FUNCTIONAL FIELD EACH YEAR

59. The representatives of Mexico and the United States submitted the following joint proposal that the Special Committee should concentrate on one functional field each year, giving special attention to education in 1950:

"The General Assembly,

"Noting that resolution _____ adopted by the General Assembly on _____ 1949 provided for the establishment of a Special Committee on Information transmitted under Article 73 e of the Charter for a three-year period without prejudice as to the future;

"Considering that the value of the work of the Committee would be enhanced if, without prejudice to the annual consideration of all the functional fields enumerated in Article 73 e of the Charter, special attention were given to one field each year;

"Noting that the Special Committee will have before it at its 1950 session a considerable volume of documentation on the subject of education, including various reports from the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization;

"Considering that information on the development of facilities for the training of the peoples of the Non-Self-Governing Territories deserves particular attention at a time when programmes of economic and social development are being extended or initiated;

"1. Invites the Special Committee at its 1950 session to give special attention to the problems of education in the Non-Self-Governing Territories, with particular attention to development of training in the economic and social fields;

"2. Invites members of the Special Committee to make special preparations in this field for the 1950 session, with a view to facilitating the constructive interchange of ideas and experience on such educational problems;

"3. Invites the Secretary-General to consult with the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and other specialized agencies in order to secure their collaboration in the study of these problems."

60. Two previous drafts of the above resolution had been prepared by the authors, but withdrawn by them, before discussion, in favour of the above text. The purport of the two revisions had been to make it clear that education was to be interpreted in a broad sense, and to avoid any implication that the Special Committee should be limited in its consideration of all the functional fields enumerated in Article 73 e of the Charter.

61. The representative of the United States of America accepted an oral amendment offered by the representative of Mexico to insert the phrase "without prejudice to the consideration of the other two functional fields" after the word "session" in paragraph 1 of the operative part of the resolution.

62. The Committee adopted the joint Mexico-United States draft resolution as a whole, as amended, by a roll-call vote of 31 to 3, with 10 abstentions, as follows:

In favour: Afghanistan, Australia, Burma, China, Costa Rica, Cuba, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Egypt, Ethiopia, Guatemala, India, Iran, Iraq, Israel, Lebanon, Liberia, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Pakistan, Peru, Philippines, Saudi Arabia, Sweden, Syria, Thailand, United States of America, Venezuela, Yemen.

"The General Assembly,

"Having regard to the obligation to transmit information under Article 73 e of the Charter accepted by the Members which have or assume responsibilities for the administration of territories whose peoples have not yet attained a full measure of self-government,

"Having regard to resolution 66 (I) adopted by the General Assembly on 14 December 1946 in which seventy-four territories were enumerated in accordance with the declarations of the responsible Governments, as falling within the scope of Article 73 e,

/"Having noted

"Having noted the information supplied by certain Members concerning the constitutional changes which have led to the cessation of the transmission of information under Article 73 e in respect of certain territories which were enumerated in resolution 66 (I),

"Considers that the General Assembly has a responsibility to express its opinion on the principles which have guided or which may in future guide the Members concerned in enumerating the territories for which the obligation exists to transmit information under Article 73 e of the Charter;

"Invites any special committee which the General Assembly may appoint on information transmitted under Article 73 e of the Charter to examine the factors which should be taken into account in deciding whether any territory is or is not a territory whose people have not yet attained a full measure of self-government."

64. The representative of Egypt accepted a suggestion by the representative of Thailand to substitute in the fourth paragraph the phrase "it is within the responsibility of the General Assembly" for the phrase "the General Assembly has a responsibility".

65. The representative of Uruguay, in an effort to conciliate two points of view advanced during the debate, submitted an amendment to provide that the General Assembly would express its opinion on the meaning of the term "Non-Self-Governing Territory" and that the Special Committee would annually examine the list of territories for which information had been received under Article 73 e. The amendment, however, was rejected by the Committee.

66. The Committee then adopted the Egyptian draft resolution by a roll call vote of 30 to 10, with 7 abstentions, as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Considering that the information contained therein on conditions existing in Non-Self-Governing Territories has considerable value and that very abundant supplemental information has been placed at the disposal of the Secretary-General by the Members concerned,

"Considering that resolution 218 (III), adopted by the General Assembly on 3 November 1948, invites the Secretary-General to prepare full summaries and analyses at three-year intervals and annual supplements in the intervening years,

"Notes that, in future, the complete summaries and analyses, as well as the annual supplements, are required to be published in the three working languages;

"Invites the Secretary-General to complement the summaries and analyses, as well as the annual supplements, by the periodical publication of data on special aspects of the progress achieved in Non-Self-Governing Territories as contained in the information transmitted under Article 73 e of the Charter and in the supplemental information."

68. The representative of Canada introduced an amendment to add to the last paragraph the following:

"...comparing such progress as appropriate with that achieved in other countries as assessed from the relevant and comparable official information which has been communicated to the United Nations or to the specialized agencies."

69. The representative of Cuba stated that he would be willing to add the following clause at the end of the last paragraph in order to meet the Canadian proposal:

"making use, if it is deemed necessary, of the sources of data indicated in paragraph 3 of resolution 218 (III) of the General Assembly."

However, in view of the unfavourable comment by one of the Administering Authorities, which the representative of Cuba interpreted as failure of his conciliatory effort, he withdrew his amendment.

70. The representative of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics submitted an amendment to delete the second paragraph of the joint draft resolution.

71. The Committee rejected the Soviet amendment by 17 votes to 7, with 20 abstentions.

72. The Committee rejected the Canadian amendment by a roll call vote of 24 to 13, with 8 abstentions, as follows:
