Item 1. Election of officers

1. Rule 15 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council provides that "at the commencement of its first meeting of a regular session the Commission shall elect, from among the representatives of its members, a Chairman, one or more Vice-Chairmen and such other officers as may be required".

Item 2. Adoption of the agenda

2. Rule 7 of the rules of procedure provides that "the Commission shall at the beginning of each session, after the election of its officers, ... adopt the agenda for that session on the basis of the provisional agenda".

3. The Commission will have before it the provisional agenda (E/CN.4/1992/1) prepared by the Secretary-General in accordance with rule 5 of the rules of procedure, as well as the present annotations relating to the items included in the provisional agenda.

Item 3. Organization of the work of the session

4. The attention of the Commission is drawn to the relevant resolutions concerning control and limitation of documentation (inter alia, General Assembly resolution 33/56 and Economic and Social Council resolutions 1981/83 and 1982/50). Furthermore, the Commission will recall that at its last eight sessions it set time-limits for statements. At its forty-seventh session, for example, members of the Commission were limited to one statement of 15 minutes or two statements of 10 minutes per item, observers and non-governmental organizations were limited to one statement of 10 minutes per item, while observer States mentioned in a report and liberation movements could make one statement of 15 minutes or two statements of 10 minutes per item. It was also agreed that, with regard to rights of reply, the practice followed by the General Assembly, namely limitation to two replies, the first of 10 minutes and the second of 5 minutes, would again be observed. In view of the existing financial constraints and the overall reductions imposed, the session must be most carefully planned from the outset, bearing in mind the absolute need for maximum effectiveness in the use of the resources available.

5. The attention of the Commission is also drawn to Economic and Social Council decision 1991/263 of 31 May 1991, by which the Council, taking note of Commission on Human Rights decision 1991/110 of 8 March 1991, decided to authorize, if possible within existing financial resources, 40 fully serviced additional meetings, with summary records, for the forty-eighth session of the Commission. The Council took note of the Commission's decision to request the Chairman, at its forty-eighth session, to make every effort to organize the work of the session within the time normally allotted, the additional meetings to be held only if they prove absolutely necessary.

6. The attention of the Commission is also drawn to item 12 (c) of the provisional agenda (E/CN.4/1992/1), under which the Commission should provide for a special closed meeting in connection with a decision relating to a particular situation.

7. The attention of the Commission is also be drawn to Economic and Social Council resolution 1990/48 of 25 May 1990 in which the Council authorized the Commission to meet exceptionally between its regular sessions, provided that a majority of States members of the Commission so agreed. In addition, the Council recommended that the mandates of the thematic rapporteurs and working groups established or to be established by the Commission should, unless otherwise decided, be of three years' duration. Further, the Council decided that, in the week following the forty-eighth session of the Commission, the Bureau should meet to make suggestions about the organization of the work of the Commission, including the effective use of conference time and facilities.

Working groups

8. The session will be preceded by meetings of the four preessional working groups referred to in E/CN.4/1992/1, paragraph 3 (a) to (d).

Assistance to Guatemala in the field of human rights

10. The Commission may wish to recall its resolution 1991/51, adopted at its forty-seventh session, in which it requested the Secretary-General to extend the mandate of the independent Expert, Mr. C. Tomuschat, so that he might continue to examine the human rights situation in Guatemala and provide assistance to the Government in the field of human rights, reporting to the Commission on the subject at its forty-eighth session, and decided to consider the question under an item of its agenda to be determined in the light of the above-mentioned report and of the situation of human rights in Guatemala. The Economic and Social Council, in its decision 1991/246 of 31 May 1991, approved the Commission's request.

11. The report of the independent Expert will be before the Commission, at its present session (E/CN.4/1992/5).

15. At its forty-third session, the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities adopted resolution 1991/6 on the situation in the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied by Israel.

16. Attention is also drawn to Economic and Social Council resolution 1991/19 on the situation of and assistance to Palestinian women.

The Commission will also have before it draft resolution X, contained in chapter I, section A of the report of the Sub-Commission (E/CN.4/1992/2-E/CN.4/Sub.2/1991/65).

Item 5. Violations of human rights in southern Africa: report of the Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts

18. The Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts on southern Africa was established by the Commission on Human Rights in accordance with resolution 2 (XXIII) of 6 March 1967. Since then, the Commission has renewed the mandate of the Ad Hoc Working Group regularly, and most recently at its forty-seventh session by resolution 1991/21. The renewal of the mandate was endorsed by the Economic and Social Council in decision 1991/237. The Ad Hoc Working Group is composed of Mr. Leliel Mikuin Balanda (Zaire), Mr. Armando Entralgo (Cuba), Mr. Felix Ermacora (Austria), Mr. Mulka G. Reddy (India), Mr. Elly E.E. Mtango (United Republic of Tanzania) and Mr. Zoran Pajic (Yugoslavia).

19. At its forty-seventh session, by resolution 1991/21, the Commission requested the Group to continue to examine the situation regarding the violations of human rights in South Africa including, in particular, reports of torture, ill-treatment and deaths of detainees, as well as infringements of trade union rights in South Africa, and submit its interim report to the Commission at its forty-eighth session and its final report at its forty-ninth session. It also requested the Group to submit a brief preliminary report to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth and forty-seventh sessions.

20. By resolution 1991/8, the Commission requested the Group to pay special attention to the question of detention, torture and other inhuman treatment of children in South Africa. On the same matter, the General Assembly, at its forty-fifth session, adopted resolution 45/144, entitled "Torture and inhuman treatment of children in detention in South Africa".

21. In pursuance of these resolutions, the Commission will have before it the Ad Hoc Working Group's interim report (E/CN.4/1992/8).

Item 6. The adverse consequences for the enjoyment of human rights of political, military, economic and other forms of assistance given to the racist regime in southern Africa

22. This item has been considered by the Commission since its thirtieth session (1974). The item has also been regularly considered by the General Assembly and the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities.

23. At its forty-seventh session, the Commission adopted resolutions 1991/9 and 1991/17, in which it expressed its appreciation to Mr. Ahmed Khalifa, Special Rapporteur of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, for his updated report containing the list of banks, transnational corporations and other organizations assisting the racist regime of South Africa.

24. Upon the recommendation of the Commission on Human Rights in its resolution 1991/9, the Economic and Social Council, by its resolution 1991/26 of 31 May 1991, invited the Special Rapporteur to continue to update his list and invited the Sub-Commission at its forty-third session and the Commission at its forty-eighth session to consider the revised report.

25. At its forty-third session, the Sub-Commission had before it the updated report of the Special Rapporteur and adopted resolution 1991/1, by which it recommended, through the Commission, that the Economic and Social Council should invite the Special Rapporteur to continue to update his list.

26. It further recommended that the Secretary-General be requested to contact the Government of South Africa with a view to enabling the Special Rapporteur to visit South Africa on a special mission for the purposes of the next updating of the report.

27. At the present session, the Commission will have before it the updated report by the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1991/13 and Add.1).

28. The Commission will also have before it draft resolution I contained in chapter I, section A, of the report of the Sub-Commission (E/CN.4/1992/2-E/CN.4/Sub.2/1991/65).

Item 7. Question of the realization in all countries of the economic, social and cultural rights contained in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, and study of special problems which the developing countries face in their efforts to achieve these human rights, including: problems related to the right to enjoy an adequate standard of living; foreign debt, economic adjustment policies and their effects on the full enjoyment of human rights and, in particular, on the implementation of the Declaration on the Right to Development

29. The Commission, by its resolution 2 (XXXI) of 10 February 1975, decided to keep this item on the agenda as a standing item with high priority. In 1989, it modified the original sub-item (a) entitled "Problems related to the right to enjoy an adequate standard of living; the right to development" and decided to consider the right to development under a separate agenda item at its forty-sixth session; it also decided to add to the original sub-item (a) a specific point entitled "Foreign debt, economic adjustment policies and their effects on the full enjoyment of human rights and, in particular, on the implementation of the Declaration on the Right to Development".

30. The Commission, at its forty-seventh session, adopted resolution 1991/13, in which it invited Governments which so desired to provide the Special Rapporteur of the Sub-Commission with their comments and the information at their disposal about their experience concerning the impact of economic adjustment policies arising from foreign debt on the enjoyment of human rights and invited the Sub-Commission to submit the third report of the Special Rapporteur to the Commission at its forty-eighth session. Also, at its forty-seventh session, the Commission adopted resolution 1991/18 in which it welcomed the contribution of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, which continued to give impetus to the implementation of the economic, social and cultural rights contained in the Covenant. Further, it requested the Secretary-General to organize, under the United Nations programme of human rights activities in 1992-1993, an expert seminar for discussion of appropriate indicators to measure achievements in the progressive realization of economic, social and cultural rights.

31. Reference may also be made to Commission resolution 1991/19 entitled "Respect for the right of everyone to own property alone as well as in association with others", in which the Commission requested its Chairman to entrust an independent expert with the task of preparing a study, within the existing financial resources, on the means whereby and the degree to which respect for the right to own property alone as well as in association with others contributed to the development of individual liberty and initiative, which served to foster, strengthen and enhance the exercise of other human rights and fundamental freedoms, and requested that a preliminary report be submitted to the Commission at its forty-eighth session and the final report at its forty-ninth session. The Economic and Social Council endorsed the Commission's request. On 29 August 1991, the Chairman appointed Mr. Luis Valencia Rodriguez (Ecuador) as Special Rapporteur of the Commission.

32. At its forty-third session, the Sub-Commission had before it the second progress report of the Special Rapporteur on realization of economic, social and cultural rights, Mr. Danilo Türk, (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1991/17) and adopted resolution 1991/27. In that resolution, the Sub-Commission endorsed the preliminary recommendations contained in paragraphs 229 to 236 of the Special Rapporteur's report and requested him to submit his final report to the Sub-Commission at its forty-fourth session.

33. The Sub-Commission also adopted resolution 1991/28 entitled "Human rights dimensions of population transfer, including the implantation of settlers and settlements".

34. In regard to this item, the Commission will have before it the second progress report of the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1991/17) and the preliminary report of the independent Expert (E/CN.4/1992/9).

Item 8. Question of the realization of the right to development

35. The Commission in its resolution 1989/45 decided to include this item on the agenda of its forty-sixth session.

36. The Declaration on the Right to Development was proclaimed by the General Assembly at its forty-first session in resolution 41/128 of 4 December 1986. The Working Group of Governmental Experts on the Right to Development, established by the Commission on Human Rights in 1981, had held nine sessions in the period preceding the adoption of the Declaration, to the content of which it contributed. Subsequent to the proclamation of the Declaration, the Working Group has held three sessions, in January 1987, 1988 and 1989, prior to the sessions of the Commission on Human Rights.

37. In accordance with Commission resolution 1989/45, endorsed by the Economic and Social Council in decision 1989/141, the Secretary-General organized a global consultation on the right to development which took place from 8 to 12 January 1990, at Geneva.

38. At its forty-seventh session, the Commission adopted resolution 1991/15, in which it requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session concrete proposals on the effective implementation and promotion of the Declaration on the Right to Development, taking into account the views expressed on the issue at the forty-seventh session of the Commission as well as any further comments and suggestions that might be submitted on the basis of paragraph 3 of Commission resolution 1990/18.

39. At its present session, the Commission will have before it in connection with this item the report of the Secretary-General in accordance with resolution 1991/15 (E/CN.4/1992/10 and Add.1).

Item 9. The right of peoples to self-determination and its application to peoples under colonial or alien domination or foreign occupation

40. This item has been on the Commission's agenda since 1975. At its forty-seventh session, the Commission adopted the following resolutions under this item: 1991/4, entitled "Situation in Afghanistan"; 1991/5, entitled "Question of Western Sahara"; 1991/6, entitled "Situation in occupied Palestine"; 1991/7, entitled "Use of mercenaries as a means of impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination"; and decision 1991/104, entitled "Situation in Cambodia". In resolutions 1991/4, 1991/5, 1991/6, 1991/7 and decision 1991/104, the Commission decided to keep these situations under review at its forty-eighth session.

41. The Commission will have before it a report of the Secretary-General prepared in accordance with Commission resolution 1991/6 (E/CN.4/1992/11).

Special Rapporteur on the question of mercenaries

42. At its forty-third session, the Commission, by resolution 1987/16, decided to appoint for one year a Special Rapporteur to examine the question of the use of mercenaries as a means of violating human rights and of impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination. On 1 September 1987, the Chairman of the Commission appointed Mr. Enrique Bernales Ballesteros (Peru) as Special Rapporteur of the Commission on the question of mercenaries.

43. At its forty-sixth session, the Commission adopted resolution 1990/7, in which it extended the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for two years. At its forty-seventh session, the Commission adopted resolution 1991/7, entitled "Use of mercenaries as a means of impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination", in which it requested the Special Rapporteur to submit his report to the Commission at its forty-eighth session, and a preliminary report to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session. The Economic and Social Council approved this request by its decision 1991/233.

44. The report of the Special Rapporteur to the Commission is contained in document E/CN.4/1992/12.

Item 10. Question of the human rights of all persons subjected to any form of detention or imprisonment, in particular:

- (a) Torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment;
- (b) Status of the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment;
- (c) Question of enforced or involuntary disappearances;
- (d) Question of a draft optional protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment.

Question of human rights and states of emergency

45. The attention of the Commission is drawn to the work of the Sub-Commission on this question. A fourth annual report and a list of States which, since 1 January 1985, have proclaimed, extended or terminated a state of emergency, was submitted by the Special Rapporteur on human rights and states of emergency, Mr. Leandro Despouy, to the Sub-Commission at its forty-third session (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1991/28). In its resolution 1991/18, the Sub-Commission invited the Special Rapporteur to update his report so that the Commission, at its forty-eighth session, would have before it the most recent and accurate information available, and recommended, through the Commission on Human Rights, to the Economic and Social Council that it endorse the request of the Sub-Commission to the Special Rapporteur to continue to update the list of states of emergency and to include in his annual report to the Sub-Commission and the Commission the completed draft standard provisions on emergency situations.

46. The Commission will have before it the revised and updated report (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1991/28/Rev.1), and draft decision 1, contained in chapter I, section B of the report of the Sub-Commission (E/CN.4/1992/2-E/CN.4/Sub.2/1991/65).

Staff members of the United Nations and specialized agencies in detention

47. Both the Commission and the Sub-Commission have dealt with the detention, disappearance and death in detention of United Nations staff members. In its resolution 1991/37, the Commission requested the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to ensure that the human rights, privileges and immunities of United Nations staff members, experts and their families were fully respected. It also requested him to submit to the Commission, at its forty-eighth session, an updated version of the report on the situation of United Nations staff members, experts and their families detained, imprisoned, missing or held in a country against their will, including those cases which had been successfully settled since the presentation of the last report.

48. The Sub-Commission, at its fortieth session, had before it, pursuant to its resolution 1987/21, a report of the Secretary-General on this subject. It adopted resolution 1988/9, in which it decided to entrust one of its members, Mrs. Maria Concepción Bautista, with the task of undertaking an examination of violations of human rights of staff members of the United Nations system.

49. At its forty-third session, the Sub-Commission adopted resolution 1991/17, in which it invited Ms. Bautista to continue her study in order to submit to the Sub-Commission, at its forty-fourth session, a final report which would include practical recommendations for measures to improve on a long-term basis the protection of personnel of the United Nations system and their families, as well as of experts and consultants.

Right to freedom of opinion and expression

50. At its forty-sixth session, the Commission adopted resolution 1990/32, in which it endorsed the appointment by the Sub-Commission of Mr. Louis Joinet and Mr. Danilo Türk to prepare a study on the right to freedom of opinion and expression and decided to review the question at its forty-seventh session on the basis, inter alia, of a preliminary report of the Special Rapporteurs. The Economic and Social Council endorsed the recommendation of the Commission in its resolution 1990/35.

51. At its forty-seventh session, the Commission adopted resolution 1991/32, in which it welcomed the intention of the Special Rapporteurs to study in

In resolution 2144 A (XXI) of 26 October 1966, the General Assembly invited the Council and the Commission to give urgent consideration to ways and means of improving the capacity of the United Nations to put a stop to violations of human rights wherever they might occur. Pursuant to these resolutions, the Commission adopted resolution 8 (XXIII) of 16 March 1967, in which it decided to give annual consideration to an item on the question of violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms. The title of the item was later modified by the Commission. Subsequently, the Economic and Social Council adopted resolutions 1235 (XLII) and 1503 (XLVIII) on the question of violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms.

The Assembly reiterated those views in subsequent resolutions, including resolution 37/199. In resolution 34/175, entitled "Effective action against mass and flagrant violations of human rights", the Assembly urged the appropriate United Nations bodies, within their mandates, particularly the Commission, to take timely and effective action in existing and future cases of mass and flagrant violations of human rights. By resolution 37/200, the General Assembly urged all States to cooperate with the Commission in its study of violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms in any part of the world and requested the Commission to continue its efforts to improve the capacity of the United Nations system to take urgent action in cases of serious violations of human rights.

Sub-item (a) Question of human rights in Cyprus

95. This question was first considered by the Commission at its thirty-second session, when it adopted resolution 4 (XXXIII) of 27 February 1976. The Commission has had this question on its agenda since then; at its forty-seventh session, by decision 1991/106, the Commission decided to postpone debate on the sub-item to its forty-eighth session and to give it due priority. It requested the Secretary-General to provide a report to the Commission regarding the implementation of its previous resolutions on the subject. At its present session the Commission will have before it the report of the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/1992/25).

On 3 May 1991, the Chairman of the Commission appointed Mr. Walter Kalin (Switzerland) as Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in occupied Kuwait. At the present session the Commission will have before it the report of the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/1991/26).

Sub-item (c) Study of situations which appear to reveal a consistent pattern of gross violations of human rights as provided for in Commission resolution 8 (XXIII) and Economic and Social Council resolutions 1235 (XLII) and 1503 (XLVIII): report of the Working Group on Situations

97. By resolution 1503 (XLVIII) of 27 May 1970, the Economic and Social Council established a procedure for dealing with communications concerning alleged violations of human rights. Particular situations referred to the Commission by the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities under Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) were placed before the Commission for the first time at its thirtieth session in 1974. Since then, particular situations relating to 47 countries have been placed before the Commission under the procedure.

98. Since its thirtieth session in 1974 (see Commission decision 3 (XXX) of 6 March 1974), the Commission annually set up a working group of five of its members, due account being taken of considerations of geographical distribution, to meet for one week prior to the Commission's following session to examine the particular situations referred to the Commission by the Sub-Commission under Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) and those situations of which the Commission was seized under that procedure, and to make recommendations to the Commission on the course of action to take in respect of each particular situation. By resolution 1990/41 of 25 May 1990, the Economic and Social Council, acting on the recommendation contained in Commission resolution 1990/55 of 7 March 1990, authorized the establishment of the working group, to be referred to as the Working Group on Situations, on a permanent basis, instead of the earlier ad hoc basis.

99. At its thirtieth session, the Commission decided that the Governments concerned should henceforth be invited to submit written observations relating to the particular situations referred to the Commission (decision 3 (XXX), para. 4).

100. In 1978, the Commission decided to issue invitations, during the first week of each session, to the States directly concerned, asking them to send representatives to address the Commission and to answer any questions put by members of the Commission (decision 5 (XXXIV)).

101. In 1979, the Commission decided to authorize its Working Group on Situations in future to communicate the text of the relevant recommendations as soon as possible to the Governments directly concerned, in order to facilitate their participation in the examination of the situations concerning their countries, as provided for in Commission decision 5 (XXXIV) (decision 14 (XXXV)).

102. In 1980, the Commission decided that the States invited to attend the closed meeting of the Commission under Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) should have the right to attend and to participate in the entire discussion of the situation concerning them, and to be present during the adoption of the final decision taken in regard to that situation (decision 9 (XXXVI) of 7 March 1980).

103. All actions taken under the procedure governed by Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) remain confidential until such time as the Commission may decide to make recommendations to the Council. The documentation pertaining to the procedure is also confidential.

104. At its forty-eighth session, the Commission will have before it the report of the Working Group on Situations, as well as other confidential documents pertaining to the sub-item, including the confidential report of the forty-third session of the Sub-Commission (E/CN.4/1992/R.1 and addenda), a report relating to the implementation of a confidential decision adopted at the Commission's last session and such observations as may be received from the Governments concerned (to be issued in the E/CN.4/1992/R series). In addition, the Commission will have before it the relevant earlier material relating to the situations of which the Commission is seized. The above-mentioned confidential documents will be handed to the members of the Commission at the session.

105. Chapter X of the report of the Sub-Commission on the work of its forty-third session (E/CN.4/1992/2-E/CN.4/Sub.2/1991/65) is also relevant to this sub-item. In that connection, attention may be drawn to Sub-Commission decision 1991/104 of 27 August 1991, by which it concurred with the view of its Working Group on Communications that the procedure governed by Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) could not be applied as a reparation or relief mechanism in respect of claims of compensation for human suffering or other losses which occurred during the Second World War.

Situation of human rights in various countries

106. At its forty-seventh session, the Commission considered, and took action on, the situation of human rights in the following countries:

(a) Situation of human rights in southern Lebanon. In its resolution 1991/66, the Commission decided to continue its consideration of the subject at its forty-eighth session. The Commission will have before it the report of the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/1991/36);

(b) Situation of human rights in Cuba. In its resolution 1991/68, the Commission requested the Secretary-General, after consultations with the Chairman and the Bureau of the Commission, to appoint a special representative, in accordance with Commission decision 1989/113, to maintain direct contact with the Government and citizens of Cuba on the issues and questions contained in, and associated with, the report of the mission which took place in Cuba and requested the special representative to report the results to the Commission at its forty-eighth session. The Economic and Social Council, in its decision 1991/252, approved the Commission's requests. On 2 July 1991, the Secretary-General appointed Mr. Rafael Rivas Posada (Colombia) as Special Representative of the Commission. The Commission will have before it the report of the Special Representative (E/CN.4/1991/27); .

Under these rules, the nomination of a candidate for membership of the Sub-Commission may be accompanied by a nomination of an expert of the same nationality to be elected simultaneously with the candidate for membership and who may serve temporarily as an alternate if the member is unable to attend, the qualifications for alternates are to be the same as for members and no person may serve as an alternate for a member except the expert so elected.
