International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming once more the permanent validity of the principles and standards set forth in the basic instruments regarding the international protection of human rights, in particular in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 1/ the International Covenants on Human Rights, 2/ the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, 3/ the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women, 4/ and the Convention on the Rights of the Child, 5/

- 1/ Resolution 217 A (III).
- 2/ See resolution 2200 A (XXI), annex.
- 3/ Resolution 2106 A (XX), annex.
- 4/ Resolution 34/180, annex.
- 5/ Resolution 44/25, annex.

Bearing in mind the principles and standards established within the framework of the International Labour Organisation and the importance of the task carried out in connection with migrant workers and their families in other specialized agencies and in various organs of the United Nations,

Reiterating that in spite of the existence of an already established body of principles and standards, there is a need to make further efforts to improve the situation and ensure the human rights and dignity of all migrant workers and their families,

Recalling its resolution 45/158 of 18 December 1990, in which the General Assembly adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families,

1. Welcomes the adoption of the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families at the previous session;
2. Takes note of the Secretary-General's note on the implementation of the Convention; 6/
3. Calls upon all Member States to consider signing and ratifying or acceding to the Convention as a matter of priority, and expresses hope that it will come into force at an early date;
4. Requests the Secretary-General to provide all facilities and assistance necessary for the promotion of the Convention, through the World Public Information Campaign on Human Rights and the programme of advisory services in the field of human rights;
5. Invites United Nations agencies and organizations, as well as intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, to intensify their efforts with a view to disseminating information on the Convention and to promoting understanding thereof;
6. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its forty-seventh session a report on the status of the Convention;
7. Decides to consider the report of the Secretary-General at its forty-seventh session under the item: "Human rights questions: implementation of human rights instruments".
