Dear Sir,

Please, what is going on in Micronesia, the land held in trust for the Micronesian people by the Americans? As I understand the situation, these islands are being used as a military base, a nuclear platform, a bombing range and an experimental site, and the local governments are being disrupted and corrupted, with some members being assassinated. Issues on self-government are being dealt with fraudulently by the Americans and the people are being allowed no self-determination. Please, what is going on in Micronesia?

Faithfully,

(Signed) Chris GLADWELL
