REVIEW OF THE EFFICIENCY OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE AND FINANCIAL FUNCTIONING OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Reform and renewal in the United Nations: progress report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of General Assembly resolution 41/213

Corrigendum

Paragraph 20 should read

20. Rationalization has also been the keynote of the other changes made in these structures. As a result, five offices have been consolidated into other entities, namely:

(a) The work of the Office for Field Operational and External Support Activities (aside from information dissemination) has been integrated into the Department of Administration and Management, in accordance with recommendation 17;

(b) The political responsibilities of the Office for Special Political Questions have been consolidated into the Department for Special Political Questions, Regional Co-operation, Decolonization and Trusteeship. Secretariat support for the Commissioner for Namibia is also being consolidated in that Department where service is provided for the Council for Namibia. This arrangement responds both to recommendations 19 and 21 of the Group of High-level Intergovernmental Experts;

* A/42/50.

(c) The functions of the Office of Secretariat Services for Economic and Social Matters relating to the technical servicing of meetings are being assumed by the Office of Political and General Assembly Affairs and Secretariat Services;

(d) The functions of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Co-ordination of Humanitarian Assistance Programmes to Kampuchea have been assumed by the Executive Secretary of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, in the field, and by the Under-Secretary-General for International Economic and Social Affairs at Headquarters (thus fusing the function with that of Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Humanitarian Affairs in South-East Asia, already held by that Under-Secretary-General).
