ANNEX

Commentary from La voix du Kampuchea démocratique entitled
"The Lao people has arisen to free itself from the Vietnamese-Soviet yoke"

The Lao people, like all the other peoples of the world, cherishes the independence and sovereignty of its homeland. However, after freeing itself from colonialism and imperialism, the Lao people has not been able to enjoy the fruits of its victory. It is again being subjected to the domination of the Vietnamese regional expansionists and the Soviet international expansionists, who are exploiting and oppressing it even more savagely than its former masters did in earlier times.

But as a nation with a long tradition of heroic struggle against the foreign aggressor, the Lao people is not remaining idle and is not allowing the Vietnamese and Soviet aggressors to occupy as they please the territory of its beloved country. Thus there has appeared since 1975 a movement of struggle against Vietnamese-Soviet domination, exploitation and oppression. This movement has developed everywhere, from the forest and mountain regions to the valleys of the Mekong. On 7 May 1979 the Lao patriots attacked a Vietnamese arms and fuel depot at Pak Sane, an important strategic position of the Vietnamese enemy, situated north-east of Vientiane, at the intersection of routes 13 and 14 leading to North Viet Nam. Explosions resounded for a long time. These patriotic struggle activities clearly show that the Lao people is resolved to free itself forever from Vietnamese-Soviet enslavement by determined struggle.

The struggle of the Lao people against Vietnamese-Soviet domination, exploitation and oppression is a just struggle. It enjoys the support and sympathy of the peoples of the world that love independence, peace and justice. The people of Kampuchea, which is resolutely struggling to eject the fascistic Vietnamese aggressors from Kampuchea, expresses its sympathy for and its solidarity with the Lao people. Side by side with that people, it is resolved to raise the flag of combat in order to eliminate the aggressor Vietnamese enemy totally and to ensure that the cause of the independence, peace, neutrality and non-alignment of their respective countries will triumph.

We are certain that when it raises high the flag of the great national union and is determined to wage the people's war with tenacity, taking guerrilla operations as its basis, the patriotic Lao people will surely win the final victory over the aggressor and annexationist Vietnamese enemy, which is trying to swallow territories and exterminate the Lao nation.
