COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN

SECOND SESSION

DRAFT RESOLUTION SUBMITTED BY THE REPRESENTATIVE OF CHINA

THE COMMISSION,

TAKING NOTE that in some countries not all the positions in the civil service are open to women and that there is no representation of women on the civil service committees in charge of examinations and appointments and that there are differences between men and women regarding qualifications, preference in appointment, remuneration, opportunities for advancement and promotion, and disqualifications, such as that married women are barred from appointment and continuation of office;

and

CONSIDERING that there is discrimination against women as to professional opportunities and access to diplomatic and consular posts and to judiciary posts, even if women are fully qualified by their legal training, RESOLVES TO REQUEST the Economic and Social Council to draw the attention of Member States to the pledges concerning the status of women undertaken when signing the United Nations Charter with a view to granting women, married or unmarried, full and equal opportunities in the civil service and in all professional diplomatic, consular, and judicial spheres.
