CHELLICAL INDUSTRIES

57(V): Resolution adopted on 24 April 1953 (E/CH.12/344)

THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR LATIN AMERICA CONSIDERING

- within the economies of the Latin American countries, as evidenced by the momentum which the industry has acquired during recent years, the increase of imports of chemical products and the important part played by chemical fertilizers in agriculture;
- (b) the difficulties of shipping certain finished chemical products, such as acids;
- (c) the fact that raw naterials, which can be utilized in various chemical industries, exist in many Latin American countries but, owing to their characteristics, often require the study of special processing methods;

REAFFIRMS resolution 10 (IV), adopted in Mexico in 1951, concerning the study of the chemical industry;

RECOMMENDS THAT THE SECRETARIAT

(a) initiate as soon as possible technical and economic /studies

relating to various chemical industries, along the lines of the iron and steel studies, and, with respect to the transport of chemicals, taking into account the studies of other United Nations bodies;
