New York, 24 February 1995

His Excellency
Dr. Boutros Boutros-Ghali
Secretary-General
United Nations
New York

Excellency,

We have the honor to inform Your Excellency that the Governments of the United Republic of Tanzania and the State of Israel have decided to re-establish diplomatic relations and to that effect they have signed the following protocol:

The Government of the United Republic of Tanzania and the Government of the State of Israel

DESIROUS of developing and strengthening relations of friendship and mutual co-operation between the two States based on universally accepted principles of International Law,

HAVE DECIDED to re-establish diplomatic relations at Ambassadorial level from today, 24 February 1995.

The practical aspects of this decision, including the accreditation of Ambassadors and co-operation between the two States shall be subject to further elaboration and implementation through normal diplomatic channels.

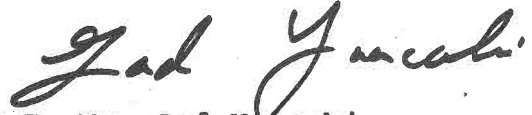

We would appreciate it if the present communication could be circulated among all the Member States of the United Nations and we take this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency, the assurances of our highest consideration.
