<sup>2</sup> Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 2017/1457 is no longer in force, as it has been integrated into Council Regulation (EU) 2017/1509 of 30 August 2017 concerning restrictive measures against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and repealing Regulation (EC) No. 329/2007.

valid on 5 August 2017, unless approved in advance on a case-by-case basis by the Committee;

(vi) Prohibiting the opening of new joint ventures or the expansion of existing joint ventures, unless approved in advance on a case-by-case basis by the Committee;

(d) Council Regulation (EU) 2017/1548 of 14 September 2017 amending Regulation (EU) 2017/1509 concerning restrictive measures against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, which gives effect to the measures set out in Council Decision (CFSP) 2017/1562.

3. The above-mentioned Council regulations are binding in their entirety and directly applicable in all States members of the European Union. Council Regulation (EU) 2017/1509 concerning restrictive measures against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and repealing Regulation (EC) No. 329/2007 requires member States to determine the penalties applicable to infringements of their provisions. Penalties for violations of directly applicable European Union law are set out in the respective sections of the relevant Austrian legislation mentioned in paragraph 4 below. Non-compliance may constitute a criminal offence punishable by up to five years of imprisonment or by a fine of up to 360 times the applicable daily rate (e.g., in the case of the Foreign Trade Act).

4. In addition to the common European Union measures, within the scope of Austria's national implementation competence, the Austrian authorities apply the following Austrian legislation in implementing the restrictive measures against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea imposed by the Security Council:

(a) Sanctions Act 2010 (Federal Law Gazette I No. 36/2010, as amended);

(b) Foreign Trade Act (Federal Law Gazette I No. 26/2011, as amended), supplemented by the First Foreign Trade Regulation (Federal Law Gazette II No. 343/2011, as amended) and the Third Foreign Trade Regulation (Federal Law Gazette II No. 6/2015, as amended);

(c) War Materials Act (Federal Law Gazette I No. 57/2001, as amended) and War Materials Regulation (Federal Law Gazette. No. 624/1977);

(d) Foreign Exchange Act (Federal Law Gazette I No. 123/2003, as amended);

(e) Banking Act (Federal Law Gazette No. 532/1993, as amended).

5. As regards restrictions on admission (travel ban), Austria has enacted the following national legislation, which, together with Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/849 (as amended) and Regulation (EC) No. 539/2001, provides the basis for the refusal of admission and the denial of requests for visas:

(a) Aliens Police Act 2005 (Federal Law Gazette I No. 100/2005, as amended);

(b) Settlement and Residence Act (Federal Law Gazette I No. 100/2005, as amended).

The above-mentioned regulations require nationals of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea to be in possession of a visa when entering the European Union. The travel restrictions are implemented through the visa application process.

6. According to the competent national authorities, the implementation of the imposed measures does not currently pose any particular difficulty. The competent national authorities continue to exercise enhanced vigilance over the very limited bilateral import/export activities and continue to conduct outreach activities aimed at relevant trade and industry sectors to increase awareness of trade patterns and activities of entities of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and to provide information about changes in the sanctions regime.

7. The Government of Austria is fully committed to maintaining its high level of implementation and to keeping the measures taken under review, as necessary.
