The enclosed communication dated 29 September 1977 is transmitted to the Permanent Missions of the States Members of the United Nations at the request of the Ministers for Foreign Affairs of Barbados and Czechoslovakia.

3 October 1977

New York, 29 September 1977

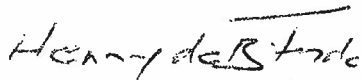

Excellency,

We have the honour to inform you that our respective Governments simultaneously published a joint communique on 29 September 1977 concerning the establishment of diplomatic relations between our two countries, the text of which reads as follows:

"The Government of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic and the Government of Barbados, desirous of promoting mutual understanding and developing relations of friendship between their respective countries and peoples, have decided to establish diplomatic relations at the Ambassadorial level.

The Governments have expressed their conviction that the establishment of diplomatic relations will contribute to the all-round development of their mutually advantageous cooperation in the interest of strengthening peace throughout the world."

We request that this communication be transmitted to the States Members of the United Nations and we take this opportunity to renew to you the assurances of our highest consideration.
