INTERNATIONAL HEALTH CONFERENCE

Amendments Proposed by the United States Delegation to the Draft Rules of Procedure

The following amendments to the Draft Rules of Procedure (Document E/4/3) are proposed by the Delegation of the United States:

Rule 7

Substitute the following text:

The accredited observers of non-member States of the United Nations and international organizations invited to the Conference may on the invitation of the President take part in the plenary meetings of the Conference and submit their observations, but are not entitled to vote.

Rule 26

Substitute the following text:

The Conference shall elect at a plenary meeting its own President, four Vice-Presidents and the Chairman of each of its Committees. Each Committee may elect its own Vice Chairman and Rapporteur.

Rule 28

Substitute the words "of countries" for the words "of their names" in line 3 (three) and delete the last sentence.

Rule 29

Substitute the following text:

The President, Vice-Presidents of the Conference and the Chairman of the Committees together with 5 delegates elected by the Conference shall constitute a General Committee and be entrusted with directing the proceedings of the Conference and with co-ordinating the work of its Committees.

Rule 31

Delete

Rule 34

Substitute the following text:

The Rules of Procedure of the Conference shall so far as practicable apply to the meetings of the sub-committees.

Rule 36

Substitute the word "deputies" for the word "delegates" in the first line and delete the word "and" in the second line.
