

General Assembly

Distr. LIMITED

A/C.3/42/L.63/Rev.2 20 November 1987

ORIGINAL: ENGLISH

Forty-second session THIRD COMMITTEE Agenda item 106

NEW INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN ORDER

Union of Soviet Socialist Republics: revised draft resolution

International co-operation in the humanitarian field

The General Assembly,

Noting that the United Nations under its Charter has to achieve international co-operation in solving international problems of humanitarian character,

Guided in particular by the commitment in the Charter to reaffirm faith in the dignity and worth of the human person,

Mindful of the significant contribution to the international humanitarian co-operation made by organizations and agencies of the United Nations system,

Recognizing, in this connection, the importance of the contribution of governmental and non-governmental organizations, including, inter alia, the contribution of the International Committee of the Red Cross and the League of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies,

Recognizing the significance of the existing workable system to promote, facilitate and co-ordinate humanitarian activities carried out by Governments, the United Nations system and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations,

Mindful of the importance of promoting universal respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms and of international co-operation in the humanitarian field for improving relations among States and peoples,

Stressing the need for the international community to continue its efforts in the field of humanitarian activities and to provide the resources to develop further activities in the humanitarian field,

Conscious that people want to live in a better, safer and more just world,

- 1. Encourages the international community to develop further its co-operation in the field of international humanitarian activities;
- 2. Calls upon all States to co-operate for the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms and to work together to promote international co-operation in order to solve existing humanitarian problems of international concern;
- 3. Encourages the international community to contribute substantially to international humanitarian activities;
- 4. Considers that international humanitarian co-operation will facilitate better understanding, mutual respect, confidence and tolerance among States and peoples, thus contributing to a more just and non-violent world;
- 5. Invites Governments, the United Nations system and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to develop international co-operation in the humanitarian field on the basis of relevant international instruments;
- 6. Requests the Secretary-General to prepare a report on the basis of views expressed by Governments for consideration by the General Assembly at its forty-fourth session;
- 7. Decides to consider the question of international humanitarian co-operation under the item ontitled "New international humanitarian order".

....