In a letter dated 7 August 1992 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/24393), the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Mission of Belgium to the United Nations stated that his Government was deeply alarmed at the repression being suffered by the civilian population of Iraq, as detailed in the interim report on the human rights situation in Iraq prepared by Mr. Max van der Stoel, which had been circulated as a document of the Council (S/24386) at the request of Belgium. He requested the convening of an urgent meeting of the Security Council, the Council having, in its resolution 688 (1991) and the presidential statement of 11 March 1992 (S/23699), undertaken to keep the question of repression in Iraq under review. He requested the convening of an urgent meeting of the Security Council to consider the situation which had arisen and which constituted a threat to peace and international security. He also requested that the Council extend an invitation to Mr. van der Stoel under rule 39 of its provisional rules of procedure.

Recalling that, in paragraph 8 of that resolution the Council had decided to remain seized of the matter, he requested an urgent meeting of the Council to consider further the repression of the Iraqi civilian population.
