"7. Calls upon States that have not yet done so to consider becoming parties to the instruments relevant to the protection, security and safety of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives;

"8. Also calls upon States, in cases where a dispute arises in connection with a violation of their international obligations concerning the protection of the missions or the security of the representatives and officials mentioned in paragraph 2 above, to make use of the means for peaceful settlement of disputes, including the good offices of the Secretary-General, and requests the Secretary-General, when he deems it appropriate, to offer his good offices to the States directly concerned;

"9. Requests all States to report to the Secretary-General in accordance with paragraph 9 of resolution 42/154 of 7 December 1987;

"10. Requests the Secretary-General to issue a report on the item, in accordance with paragraph 12 of resolution 42/154, containing also an analytical summary of the reports received under paragraph 9 above, on an annual basis, as well as to proceed with his other tasks pursuant to the same resolution;

II. REPORTS RECEIVED FROM STATES PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH 9
OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION 45/39

A. Analytical summary of the reports

7. The reports submitted to the Secretary-General during the period 1 October 1991 to 30 June 1992 cover a wide range of incidents concerning diplomatic and consular missions and representatives. States have resorted to the reporting procedures available to them for two different purposes, either to report violations regarding their own missions and representatives, or to submit information on incidents which occurred in their own territory, whether such incidents had or had not been previously reported by the other States concerned.

8. The reported incidents differ substantially as to their nature and gravity. They range from a case of prevention by an occupying State of the official activities of a diplomatic mission, to a number of diverse acts of violence directed against diplomatic and consular missions and representatives. Some of these incidents led to tragic consequences.

1. Prevention by an occupying State of the official activities of a diplomatic mission

9. In reply to a report which had been submitted by Sweden (see A/INF/46/4, sect. II.B, No. 17) concerning incidents at the Embassy of Sweden in Kuwait during the Iraqi occupation of Kuwait, Iraq commented that such incidents were the result of an emergency situation, which had led the Iraqi authorities to request that members of diplomatic missions leave for their own protection. Iraq also stated that great efforts were made to facilitate their transfer to Baghdad, under extremely difficult and complex circumstances.

2. Violations of the protection of diplomatic and consular premises

10. A number of communications have been submitted regarding: intrusions into diplomatic and consular premises of missions resulting in material damage or injuries to the personnel; bomb attacks on such premises; and other acts of violence and disturbances of the peace of diplomatic missions and consular posts.

11. A series of incursions into the premises of diplomatic missions and consular posts of the Islamic Republic of Iran and Turkey were reported. In addition to these reports, information was submitted by Brazil and Côte d'Ivoire on two cases of incursions which had been reported by Poland.

12. The Islamic Republic of Iran reported violent incursions of groups of demonstrators into Iranian diplomatic and consular missions in Australia, Canada, France, Germany, the Netherlands, Norway, Pakistan, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey and the United States of America. In all these cases, according to these reports, the attackers caused damage to the premises and to the property therein. Some of the attacks resulted in the occupation of the mission, or in robberies or destruction of official documents. In a few instances, the assailants took embassy personnel as hostages or injured some of them. In connection with the assaults on the Iranian Embassies at Canberra, The Hague and Oslo, respectively, Australia, the Netherlands and Norway transmitted information on the ongoing prosecutions of the alleged offenders and declared their willingness to pay appropriate compensation for the damage caused during the incursions. Sweden reported the final outcome of the proceedings against the authors of the attack on the Iranian Embassy at Stockholm and stated that it had reimbursed ex gratia all reasonable costs incurred as a result of the damage caused to the Embassy.

13. Turkey reported the occupation of its Embassy in London by a group of 40 people, during which a security officer was taken hostage and the furniture, fixtures and documentation of the Embassy were seriously damaged. In response to that report, the United Kingdom transmitted information on the ongoing prosecution of the alleged offenders. Other intrusions into Turkish diplomatic and consular premises reportedly occurred in Germany, the Netherlands, Norway and Switzerland, where demonstrators entered the gardens or the entrance hall of the various missions and caused damage to the premises. In connection with the incident that took place at Oslo, Norway provided information on the prosecution of the alleged offenders and on the claim pending for compensation of the damage. Furthermore, Germany declared that it had paid ex gratia compensation for the damage caused by such intrusions and that investigations were continuing for the purpose of prosecuting the offenders. Norway additionally reported another assault on the Turkish Embassy Chancery building in Oslo.

14. A number of bomb attacks were made on the premises of diplomatic and consular missions. The most serious of all such attacks, as reported by Israel, was an explosion in front of the Israeli Embassy at Buenos Aires, which caused the death of 28 people, including eight diplomats and staff members, and hundreds of casualties. Israel also reported a grenade attack on its Embassy at Addis Ababa, for which no casualties were reported. On various other occasions, especially in the course of violent demonstrations before the missions, incendiary devices were thrown and fires were started which caused substantial damage to the premises. Incidents of this kind were reported by the Islamic Republic of Iran in Germany and by Turkey in Austria, Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden and Switzerland. Follow-up information on the incidents was transmitted by Austria, Germany,

Greece, the Netherlands, Norway and Sweden. Iraq submitted a report on a similar violation of the protection of its Embassy in Stockholm, which had also been reported by Sweden. Australia reported an arson attack on the United States Consulate at Brisbane.

15. Other disturbances of the peace of diplomatic and consular missions included the throwing of stones, paint or eggs at the premises of the missions, the burning or tearing of flags, or other hostile acts, which were reported by the Islamic Republic of Iran in the United Kingdom and by Turkey in Australia, France, Germany, Sweden and the United Kingdom. Germany, Sweden and the United Kingdom provided follow-up information on the incidents. Austria, Norway and Sweden additionally reported attacks on the Turkish Consulate-General at Bregenz, and the embassies of Turkey at Oslo and Stockholm, respectively. The Islamic Republic of Iran reported that "four citizens of the regime of occupied Palestine" attempted to plant devices for eavesdropping on telephone communications of its Embassy in Nicosia.

3. Attacks on the persons of diplomatic and consular representatives and their families

16. In addition to the victims of the above-mentioned explosion at the Israeli Embassy at Buenos Aires, two cases of murder have been reported during the period considered. Greece and Turkey reported the murder of the Cultural Attaché of the Turkish Embassy at Athens, shot and killed by two unknown men while sitting in his car. Israel reported a bomb explosion in the car of a staff member of the Israeli Embassy at Ankara, as a result of which the Israeli diplomat was killed.

17. On two occasions, diplomatic representatives were injured by unknown assailants. The Islamic Republic of Iran reported an attack on two Iranian diplomats in Baghdad, during which one of them was shot and severely injured. Turkey and Greece reported a bomb attack on the service car of the Turkish Embassy at Athens, as a result of which the Chargé d'affaires, the Administrative Attaché, the driver and a passer-by were injured.

18. Australia, Hungary, the Islamic Republic of Iran and Turkey reported attacks on cars carrying diplomatic or consular representatives, during which no personal injury was sustained. Such attacks were directed at an officer of the Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia at Canberra (as reported by Australia), the Ambassador of Turkey at Budapest (as reported by Hungary), two Iranian diplomats at Baghdad and the Iranian Ambassador at Paris (as reported by the Islamic Republic of Iran), and the Vice-Consul of Israel with his wife at Istanbul (as reported by Turkey).

[9 July 1992]

1. The protection, security and safety of diplomatic and consular missions is guaranteed by the competent Austrian authorities and the security measures are constantly being adapted to meet particular dangers.

2. As to the incidents reported by Turkey with reference to General Assembly resolution 45/39,* the Austrian authorities have reacted promptly and forcefully:

(a) On 13 July 1991, 30 to 50 Kurdish activists threw stones, bags of paint and Molotov cocktails at the Turkish Embassy at Vienna. Nobody was injured. [Original: English]

[30 November 1991]

The Permanent Representative of Brazil to the United Nations, with reference to Notes LA/COD/4 dated 11 July 1991* and LA/COD/4 dated 11 November 1991,* has the honour to transmit herewith the following information provided by the Brazilian Government concerning the reported theft which occurred within the premises of the Consulate-General of Poland at Sao Paulo:

1. Immediately after it was informed by the Embassy of Poland in Brasilia of the reported violation of the premises of the Consulate-General of Poland in Sao Paulo, the Ministry of External Relations of Brazil urged the Secretary of Public Security of the State of Sao Paulo to take all appropriate steps to protect the consular premises and guarantee the safety and security of the consular officers and to conduct investigations of the reported violation and theft, aiming at the arrest of the offender or offenders and the recovery of all stolen property.

2. The Secretary of Public Security of the State of Sao Paulo initiated the investigations and the appropriate legal proceedings (Inquiry No. 5/92, dated 5 July 1991). Despite those measures and the hearings of the consular employees and members of the service staff and other persons, the police authorities of the State of Sao Paulo have so far been unable to identify the perpetrators. The investigations are proceeding and any findings will be duly transmitted to the Ministry of External Relations at Brasilia.

[27 May 1992]

1. No serious violations of the protection, security and safety of foreign missions and representatives, mentioned in paragraph 9 of General Assembly resolution 42/154 of 7 December 1987, have been registered in the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria. burglary have been recorded, including three from diplomatic residences and two from offices. All the aforesaid cases are presently under investigation.

2. The local police branches periodically institute practical measures for the prevention of any acts infringing upon the inviolability of the premises with diplomatic status by outfitting the offices and residences of diplomats and other persons enjoying immunity under international law with anti-burglar alarms and security systems, by employing doormen and caretakers for the premises, parking lots, and so forth.

5. Notes verbales from the Permanent Mission of Côte d'Ivoire to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General 8/, 9/

[Original: French]

[25 March 1992]

The Permanent Mission of the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire to the United Nations has the honour to transmit to the Secretary-General of the United Nations the letter from the Government of Côte d'Ivoire relative to the incident that occurred at the Trade Mission of Poland in Abidjan on 26 January 1991.*

Abidjan, 4 March 1992

1. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire presents its compliments to the United Nations in New York and, with reference to note verbale No. LA/COD/4 of 11 November 1991 concerning the aggression committed against the Trade Mission of Poland at Abidjan, has the honour to inform it as follows:

2. The Trade Mission of Poland as well as numerous other diplomatic missions against which attacks were made were duly informed of the Ministry's approaches to the competent Ivorian authorities with a view on the one hand to locating the persons responsible for these acts and on the other hand to eliminating this form of gang activity, which the Government condemned in the strongest possible terms.

3. In addition, the Ministry invited the diplomatic missions, by note verbale No. 174/AE/SG-2 of 10 July 1991, to take preventive measures.

* For the report on the incident received from the Permanent Representative of Poland, see A/INF/46/4, sect. II.B, No. 15.

 Reproduced below.

4. As of now, the attacks against diplomatic missions have ceased following the dismantling of the criminal network, most of whose members have been imprisoned.
5. Moreover, it is important to emphasize the correlation between delinquency and the economic crisis.
6. The rise in the unemployment rate has exposed the town of Abidjan to a resurgence of crime. Studies conducted in this field have shown that the gang members are recruited primarily from among the immigrants coming from neighbouring countries who have been condemned by the crisis to idleness and total destitution for want of jobs.
7. Under these circumstances the Government cannot hope to suppress gang activity other than by overcoming the economic crisis as rapidly as possible.
8. In this respect, the many-sided aid of organizations, including the United Nations, is essential, inter alia to promote fair prices for primary commodities, a greater volume of international financial assistance and an easing of the terms of repayment of the external debt.
9. This is a matter of aiding not only Côte d'Ivoire, but also all the neighbouring countries, through 4 million immigrants, or around 40 per cent of the population of Côte d'Ivoire.

[21 April 1992]

The Permanent Mission of Côte d'Ivoire to the United Nations has the honour to transmit to the Secretary-General of the United Nations the enclosed note from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire in connection with the incident that occurred at the Trade Mission of Poland in Abidjan on 26 January 1991.

Abidjan, 10 July 1991

1. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire presents its compliments to the Dean of the Diplomatic Corps and, further to the meeting held on 5 July 1991 between the Office of the Diplomatic Corps and representatives of the Ministry, has the honour to state the following:
2. With a view to curbing the wave of attacks to which, unfortunately, diplomatic missions and their members continue to be subjected, the Ivorian Government proposes the following protective measures:
 - I. Individual security measures

Each diplomatic mission should obtain materials that can afford the mission a first line of protection, namely:

/...

Security locks and bars for windows and doors;

Enclosures 2.5 m high topped with metal spikes;

Guard booths inside the enclosures equipped with alarm systems;

Guards and watchdogs;

Mission staff and drivers should be made familiar with basic security measures (varying routines, monitoring moving and parked vehicles);

Local staff should be registered with the police and their police records should be obtained;

Volumetric burglar-alarm systems (light/sound, infrared camera) should be installed.

II. The Ivorian Government will ensure the security of diplomatic missions by means of:

Patrolling: Mobile patrols of two or three police officers will drive in front of diplomatic missions at regular times following a pre-established itinerary;

A special radio channel will be assigned to diplomatic missions to provide a permanent link with the PC MUROS communications coordinator on the security staff at the headquarters of the Ministry of Security and the Interior;

Until such time as new communications links between the police and diplomatic missions are established, the No. 111 telephone line can be used when necessary.

3. It should be noted in this connection that four police vehicles have been providing patrol coverage of the diplomatic missions in the Cocody-Deux Plateaux-Riviéra area since 21 June 1991.

4. In addition, diplomatic missions that have not yet provided the Ministry with information regarding their layouts as well as chancellery and residence telephone numbers and street addresses are requested to do so as soon as possible.

5. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire takes this opportunity to convey to the Dean of the Diplomatic Corps the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.

1. On 16 July 1991, at about 8.30 a.m., a service car register with the Turkish Embassy in Athens was damaged by an explosion of a bomb detonated through a remote-control device from a car parked along the curb of a road in the Psychico area of Athens. The three persons on the armoured vehicle of the Turkish Embassy, namely: (a) Mr. Beniz Bouloukbasi, Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Turkish Embassy; (b) Ms. Ayse Nilgun Kegeci, Attaché of the Turkish Embassy and (c) Mr. Adil Yildirim, driver of the Embassy, along with another Greek woman, who happened to pass by at the time, were injured and carried immediately to the State General Hospital of Athens. The explosion also damaged 11 other vehicles parked in the vicinity and caused minor damages to several houses located in the area.
2. The police found that the trunk of another vehicle, parked at the point where the attempt took place, was trapped with 25 kilograms of explosive material. This vehicle was completely damaged and its pieces blown to a distance of 200 m. It was also determined that a remote-control device had been used for the explosion. The vehicle with the explosives was stolen several days prior to the incident and its plates were false.
3. The perpetrators fled the area on another vehicle, whose plates were equally false.
4. An underground Group, calling itself "Revolutionary Organization 17 November" assumed the responsibility of the explosion by proclamation sent to an Athens daily.
5. On 21 July 1991, two officers of the Turkish Police, Mr. Eyup Kugukdemir and Mr. Yakup Kizilkaya, came to Greece and were given information about the incident by their Greek colleagues. The Turkish officers also took part in various meetings held in the Athens Police Headquarters, on 22 and 24 July 1991.
6. Investigations about the perpetrators of the explosion have been to date inconclusive. The Athens police continue to investigate the case.

* Transmitting a report on the incidents received from the Permanent Mission of Turkey, reproduced below.

7. On 16 January 1992, the Athens police carried out an inspection in an Athens apartment rented by four Turkish citizens, all of Kurdish origin. The inspection was carried out after a search warrant had been issued by the Justice Department and aimed at finding evidence for criminal acts committed in Greece by the suspects in question (possession of counterfeit passports, illegal possession of firearms, and so on).
8. After a fingerprint examination, it was determined that one of the arrested suspects was the perpetrator of another incident that took place against the Consulate-General of Turkey at Athens.
9. Specifically, it was found out that on 18 July 1991, and at 12.20 a.m., the person in question threw three "Molotov cocktails" (bottles full of gasoline, wrapped with Turkish newspapers) into the building of the Turkish Consulate-General at Athens. Two of the bombs did not explode, later to be found in the front yard of the Consulate, whereas the third did explode in the balcony of the building, thus causing only minor damage.
10. On 17 January 1992, the three persons in question were brought before the Public Prosecutor, who, after having received their testimonies and with the consent of the Magistrate of Athens, ordered their incarceration in the Koxydallos State Prison, pending trial.
11. As regards the assassination of the Deputy Press Counsellor of the Turkish Embassy in Athen, Mr. Cetin Görgü, which took place at Athens on 7 October 1991, about which this Permanent Mission has already informed the Secretary-General of the United Nations (note No. 6187.1/64/2923, dated 14 October 1991), the Athens police are still investigating the case. Any progress on the matter will be promptly reported to the Secretary-General.

11. Note verbale from the Permanent Mission of Iraq to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General 20/

[Original: Arabic]

[14 January 1992]

The Permanent Mission of the Republic of Iraq to the United Nations has the honour to submit herewith the reply to the note dated LA/COD/4 and its annex, the report from the Permanent Mission of Sweden to the United Nations,* concerning the incidents at the Embassy of Sweden in Kuwait during the period following the events of August 1991.

1. The incidents at the Swedish Embassy in Kuwait during the period mentioned in the above-mentioned note of the Secretary-General of the United Nations was simply the result of an emergency situation and happened because of the existence of armed conflict and irregular circumstances at the time in question. This led the Iraqi authorities present in Kuwait at the time to request that members of diplomatic missions operating there, including the Swedish Embassy, to leave for their own protection and to prevent any injury to them. Great efforts were made to facilitate their transfer to Baghdad, in extremely difficult and complex circumstances. We believe that the matter was closed with Iraq's departure from Kuwait.

* See A/INF/46/4, sect. II.B, No. 17.

2. With regard to the second incident referred to in the Swedish note, which relates to the aggression to which the Iraqi Embassy at Stockholm was exposed and the accompanying incidents, we state that the Swedish authorities were unable to take all appropriate measures to protect the premises of the Iraqi Embassy from the attempt of hostile elements to storm it, damage the Embassy building and impair its dignity and security, contrary to article 22, paragraph 2, of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations.

3. It was established during the official inquiry at the time that, as stated in the note of the Permanent Mission of Sweden to the United Nations, the demonstrators disarmed two security guards posted in front of the Embassy and also threw stones and Molotov cocktails at the Embassy building, broke windows and tried to force the front doors of the Embassy, in an attempt to occupy it, before the attack was halted by the Swedish Police, who arrived late at the scene and did not take the obligatory measures to protect the Iraqi diplomatic mission against riotous acts of aggression. This failure caused great damage and the breaking of a number of windows, in addition to the outbreak of fire in one part of the building.

4. With regard to the allegations of shooting by members of the Iraqi Embassy, these are merely suspicions and are unsubstantiated. If we take the facts into consideration, we can only reaffirm that the members of the Embassy were victims of attacks by rioters and that, in view of the remissness of the Swedish authorities, they were unable to defend the Embassy building or themselves, since they were exposed to great danger, for which the Swedish authorities bear the responsibility.

6. Following the attack on the Embassy, protective measures were intensified.
7. As has been reported by the Turkish Government to the Secretary-General* on 9 August 1991, an incident occurred at the Turkish Tourist Office at Stockholm. Since this office has not been accepted as an integral part of the Embassy of Turkey, no further account of the incident is given in the present context.
8. On Sunday, 22 March 1992, the Embassy of Turkey in Stockholm was attacked by some 150 demonstrators of Kurdish origin. At the time, the Embassy was protected by four security guards, one riot squad consisting of five policemen and two police cars with two policemen in each car. Reinforcements arrived within five minutes after the attack had begun and prevented trespassing on the Embassy premises.
9. The Embassy was damaged by about 300 stones thrown by the demonstrators and a dozen windows were broken.
10. The police apprehended 92 persons in connection with the incident, among them 17 women and 23 children. After questioning, the women and children were released. 11. The Ministry for Foreign Affairs stated that it regarded the incident as regrettable and reimbursed ex gratia reasonable expenses incurred as a result of the damage caused to the Embassy premises.
12. For a long period of time preceding the attack, the Embassy of Turkey had been continuously kept under 24-hour surveillance by stationary security guards and by mobile police patrols. Eight stationary policemen with two dogs, a mobile police patrol consisting of five men and protective barriers were subsequently employed.
13. On Sunday, 5 April 1992, the Embassy of the Islamic Republic of Iran was attacked by between 30 and 50 Mujahidin sympathizers, who were persons residing in Sweden.

* The report received from the Permanent Mission of Turkey is reproduced below.

14. At the time, two security guards were posted in front of the Embassy. They were joined by two policemen arriving on the spot. As they saw a group of people approaching, they immediately informed the police operating centre, asking for reinforcements.

15. The security guards and the policemen were not able to stop the approaching crowd, who broke the barriers, forced their way into the Embassy grounds and threw stones and so-called Molotov cocktails at the Embassy building and through its windows. They also broke open the front door of the chancellery, set fire to the residence, the upper floor of the main building, and to an adjoining building.

16. Reinforcements arrived within five minutes after the attack had begun. However, by then the perpetrators had left the Embassy area.

17. The Ambassador's wife and two small children as well as an attaché who was temporarily serving at the Embassy were taken to the hospital for examination. They were able to leave the hospital the same evening.

The Ministry for Foreign Affairs arranged temporary accommodation for the Ambassador and his family and for the staff who were residing at the Embassy.

19. Neither the security guards and policemen who were present at the time the attack started, nor the Embassy staff, were able to point out any of the persons detained. The said temporary member of the staff was in the Embassy grounds at the time of the attack. However, he was not able to identify any of the 15 to 20 persons he had observed breaking into the Embassy grounds, nor could he identify any of the five to six persons who had subsequently assaulted him.

20. Following the attack, the police apprehended 24 persons. After questioning, eight persons were released and 16 were detained. After a week, conclusive evidence had not been presented as a result of the further investigation and 12 more persons were released. Four persons were retained in detention, three of them had been apprehended just outside the Embassy barriers. The fourth person confessed to grave breach of domiciliary peace but denied causing damage to the Embassy. All those detained were prosecuted for grave breach of domiciliary peace. Three were sentenced to imprisonment (one for six months and two for four months each) and a fourth person was given a conditional sentence with a duty to undergo medical examination.

21. The Swedish Prime Minister strongly condemned the attack against the Embassy of the Islamic Republic of Iran and stated that criminal outrages of this nature were to be repudiated. The Ministry for Foreign Affairs stated that it regarded the incident as regrettable and reimbursed, ex gratia, all reasonable costs not covered by insurance, incurred as a result of the damage caused to the Embassy.

Upon the arrival of sufficient police officers the trespassers were contained within the building and arrested. They were subsequently brought before a magistrate's court on 20 March 1992. Three individuals were given conditional discharges, fined £25 to £100 and ordered to pay £50 costs. The rest of those arrested were committed to the Crown Court for trial.

3. The demonstrators remained behind barriers placed outside the Embassy. However, one of them, Andrew Loizou, climbed on to the roof of the Embassy, where he removed the Turkish flag from the flag-pole outside the building and tore it in half. Mr. Loizou was then arrested on the balcony and taken to a police station where he was charged with criminal damage to the Turkish flag.
4. On 5 August 1991, Mr. Loizou appeared at a magistrate's court and was fined £50, plus £25 costs. He was also instructed to pay £60 compensation to the Turkish Embassy.
5. With a view to preventing further incidents of this nature, a Crime Prevention Officer of the Metropolitan Police carried out a full inspection of the Turkish Embassy on 23 July 1991. He made a number of recommendations in a report to the Turkish Embassy on means of improving the security of the building.
