AGENDA ITEM 12: REPORT OF THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL (continued)
(A/C.2/48/L.17)

Draft resolution on the economic and social repercussions of the Israeli settlements on the Palestinian people in the Palestinian territory, including Jerusalem, occupied since 1967, and on the Arab population of the Syrian Golan
(A/C.2/48/L.17)

1. Mr. RYSINSKI (Poland), Vice-Chairman, said that no consensus had emerged from the informal consultations on draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.17. It had, however, proved possible to introduce various amendments. In the first line of the final preambular paragraph the words "in particular" should be inserted before the words "the signing". At the end of paragraph 2, the word "peace" should be replaced by the words "economic and social development". Paragraph 4 should be deleted and existing paragraph 5 renumbered as new paragraph 4. In that paragraph the final words "being without legal validity" should be replaced by "illegal". Existing paragraph 6 should be renumbered as new paragraph 5.

2. Mr. RAMOUL (Algeria) said that Cuba and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea had joined the sponsors of the draft resolution.

3. Mr. SEBINA (Botswana), speaking in explanation of vote before the vote, said that his country was opposed to the continued occupation of Palestinian and other territories by Israel. It was cause for concern for Botswana that draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.17 failed to reflect the agreement concluded between the PLO and Israel on 13 September 1993. His Government held the view that all the intentions indicated in the agreement must be encouraged if a lasting solution was to be attained. Accordingly his delegation would abstain.

4. Mr. ELIASHIV (Israel), speaking in explanation of vote before the vote, said that the Declaration of Principles signed on 13 September 1993 by Israel and the PLO stipulated that the question of the settlements would be discussed in the framework of the negotiations on permanent status. The United Nations should support the Declaration. Draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.17 ran counter to the modalities envisaged in the Declaration and prejudged the outcome of the negotiations. In fact the bilateral negotiations between Israel and the Palestinians and between Israel and Syria were the proper forums in which to resolve such issues. Accordingly his delegation would vote against the draft resolution.

5. A recorded vote was taken on draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.17.

In favour: Afghanistan, Albania, Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Azerbaijan, Bahamas, Bahrain, Bangladesh, Barbados, Belgium, Belize, Bolivia, Brazil, Brunei Darussalam, Bulgaria, Burkina

6. Draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.17, as orally amended, was adopted by 113 votes to 2, with 13 abstentions.

7. Mr. AL-HABIB (Islamic Republic of Iran) said that his delegation, while it had voted in favour of draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.17, had certain reservations regarding those parts of the resolution which could be interpreted as implying recognition of Israel.

8. Mr. KHANI (Syrian Arab Republic) said that the final preambular paragraph of draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.17 was not compatible with the Declaration signed in September 1993 by Israel and the PLO, in view of which his delegation had reservations.

9. Mr. ELBATEL (Libyan Arab Jamahiriya) said that his delegation's vote in favour of draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.17 did not imply recognition of Israel or acceptance of certain elements of the text.

Draft resolution on the renewal of the dialogue on strengthening international economic cooperation for development through partnership

10. Mr. ARELLANO RESENDIZ (Mexico), Vice-President, said that consensus had been achieved and, therefore, he requested that the draft resolution should be adopted without a vote.

11. Draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.28/Rev.1 was adopted without a vote.

12. Mr. HIDAYAT (Indonesia) said that the adoption of the resolution represented a cornerstone of the renewal of the dialogue on international economic cooperation for development within the United Nations system, to be conducted on the basis of mutual interests and benefits, genuine interdependence, shared responsibility and partnership for sustainable development. But the value of that resolution would depend on the degree of commitment shown by the international community to promote that dialogue. Indonesia hoped that, with the adoption of the resolution, the international community would reinforce its efforts to finalize the agenda for development and return the issues of development and eradication of poverty to the top of the international agenda.

Draft resolution on an international code of conduct on the transfer of technology (A/C.2/48/L.14/Rev.1)

14. Draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.14/Rev.1 was adopted without a vote.

Draft resolution on economic measures as a means of political and economic coercion against developing countries (A/C.2/48/L.21)

15. Mr. ARELLANO RESENDIZ (Mexico), Vice-Chairman, said that the draft resolution had not received the support of all delegations and, therefore, should be put to the vote.

16. Mr. HORIN (Ukraine) said that currently, in an increasing number of cases, various types of economic measures were being used as a means of economic and political coercion, and not only against developing countries. They were frequently applied without the authorization of the relevant United Nations organs, and were incompatible with the principles of the Charter. Ukraine considered that such measures were characteristic of hegemony. Recent history contained many examples of what could happen if the international community did not take timely action to curb neoimperialist ambitions. The draft resolution submitted by Colombia and China established a solid basis for the application of the general principle of the non-utilization of blackmail, blockades, embargoes and other similar sanctions. In reality, Ukraine suffered from measures of economic coercion which brought with them consequences that were no less painful for its economy than those imposed against developing countries. His delegation joined the sponsors of the draft resolution and would vote in favour of it.

(Mr. Horin, Ukraine)

17. A recorded vote was taken on draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.21.

In favour: Afghanistan, Algeria, Argentina, Bahamas, Bahrain, Bangladesh, Barbados, Belize, Benin, Bolivia, Botswana, Brazil, Brunei Darussalam, Burkina Faso, Burundi, Cambodia, Cameroon, Cape Verde, Chile, China, Colombia, Congo, Côte d'Ivoire, Cuba, Djibouti, Ecuador, Egypt, Ethiopia, Fiji, Gabon, Ghana, Guinea, Guyana, India, Indonesia, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Iraq, Jamaica, Jordan, Kenya, Kuwait, Lao People's Democratic Republic, Lesotho, Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Madagascar, Malawi, Malaysia, Mali, Mexico, Micronesia (Federated States of), Mongolia, Morocco, Mozambique, Myanmar, Namibia, Nepal, Nicaragua, Niger, Nigeria, Oman, Pakistan, Peru, Philippines, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Senegal, Singapore, Sri Lanka, Sudan, Swaziland, Syrian Arab Republic, Thailand, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Togo, Trinidad and Tobago, Tunisia, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates, United Republic of Tanzania, Uruguay, Venezuela, Viet Nam, Yemen, Zambia, Zimbabwe.

18. Draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.21 was adopted by 85 votes to 33, with 14 abstentions.

19. Mr. COHEN (United States of America), speaking in explanation of vote, said that his delegation had voted against the draft resolution for a number of reasons. The draft did not reflect the enormous changes that had occurred in the world. On the contrary, it perpetuated old modes of thought. International law accorded each State the discretion to protect its essential security and other interests through the imposition of trade and other economic sanctions. Many States did so, including some which in the past had supported that resolution. It was time for the General Assembly to dispense with such divisive, confrontational resolutions, which did not enhance the reputation or status of the United Nations. Rather, they ran counter to the spirit of cooperation and partnership that was emerging in international economic discussions.

(Mr. Cohen, United States)

20. Mr. ARELLANO RESENDIZ (Mexico), Vice-Chairman, introduced draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.81, which had been prepared on the basis of informal consultations held on draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.22. He recommended its adoption without a vote.

21. Ms. KELLEY (Secretary of the Committee), referring to the programme budget implications of draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.81, said that, if that text was adopted by the General Assembly, no additional resources would be required under section 25 of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1994-1995.

34. Mr. COHEN (United States of America) said that his delegation had joined the consensus on draft resolution A/C.2/48/L.76 on the understanding that paragraph 20 which stressed "the importance of maintaining the institutional identity and visibility of the Division for the Least Developed Countries in the Secretariat of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development" would not be interpreted in such a way as to limit the Conference's management flexibility and hamper its freedom to reallocate its resources in accordance with its new work priorities.
