PERMANENT MISSION OF ICELAND
TO THE UNITED NATIONS

New York, 3 December 1993

Excellency,

We have the honour to present our compliments and to communicate that the Government of the Kingdom of Swaziland and the Government of the Republic of Iceland have formally entered into diplomatic relations today. A joint communiqué to that effect is enclosed.

We would appreciate it if the text of the joint communiqué could be circulated as a United Nations document to the Member States.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of our highest consideration.

JOINT DECLARATION

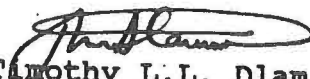

on the Establishment of Diplomatic Relations between the Kingdom of Swaziland and the Republic of Iceland

The Kingdom of Swaziland and the Republic of Iceland, convinced that the best way to strengthen peace and international security is through understanding, cooperation and friendly relations between nations, take great pleasure in announcing their mutual recognition and the establishment of diplomatic relations.

It is the view of both Governments that the mutual relations between the two States shall be carried out in the first instance through their Permanent Representatives to the United Nations.

Both Governments look forward to the further development of close and friendly relations between them and their peoples.

For the Kingdom of Swaziland For the Republic of Iceland
