UNITED NATIONS
COMPENSATION COMMISSION
GOVERNING COUNCIL
Eighth session
Geneva, 14-18 December 1992

Establishment of the UNCC Committee on Administrative Matters

Decision taken by the Governing Council of the United Nations Compensation Commission at its 31st meeting, held in Geneva on 18 December 1992

The Governing Council decides to establish a Governing Council Committee called the UNCC Committee on Administrative Matters (the "CAM"). The CAM will be composed of Geneva representatives (or their designees) of interested member states of the Governing Council. The President of the Governing Council or his designee will be chairman of the CAM. The CAM will meet informally whenever deemed appropriate by the chairman or by the Executive Secretary. The CAM will review and provide guidance on major administrative and budgetary matters presented to it by the Executive Secretary, including the annual administrative budget. The Governing Council retains authority to make all decisions concerning the payment of claims.
