New York, 12 November 1991

Sir,

We have the honour to inform you that on 11 November 1991, the Governments of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas and Norway have issued simultaneously a joint communiqué concerning the establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries, the text of which is as follows:

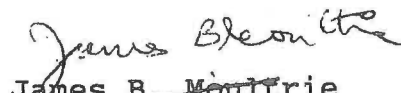

The Governments of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas and Norway, convinced that the best way to strengthen peace and international security is through understanding, cooperation and friendly relations between nations, have decided to establish formal diplomatic relations, at the level of Non-Resident Ambassadors, effective in accordance with the principles and purposes of the United Nations Charter and the relevant provisions of the Vienna Convention that regulate Diplomatic Relations.

Both Governments express their confidence that this agreement will contribute to the strengthening of mutual cooperation in areas of common interest for the benefit of both countries, which share the same objectives and goals of promoting peace, democracy and justice in their relations.

We would request you to transmit this communication to States Members of the United Nations, and we take this opportunity to renew to you the assurances of our highest consideration.
