NEW YORK, 1 OCTOBER 1984

Sir,

We have the honour to inform that on 1 October 1984 the Permanent Representatives of Maldives and the Polish People's Republic have exchanged notes establishing diplomatic relations between the two countries. The text of the note is as follows:

" The Governments of the Polish People's Republic and the Republic of Maldives desirous to develop friendly relations and fruitful co-operation between the two countries have decided to establish diplomatic relations effective 1 October 1984. The two Governments agreed that these relations will be based on the principles of friendship, mutual respect, sovereignty and territorial integrity, equality and mutual advantage.

Done at New York on 1 October 1984.

Mohamed Musthafa Hussain
Ambassador and Permanent
Representative to the
United Nations

Wlodzimierz Natorf
Ambassador and Permanent
Representative to the United Nations "

We would be grateful if you would bring this to the attention of the Permanent Missions of the State Members and the Offices of Permanent Observers to the United Nations.

We take this opportunity to renew to you the assurances of our highest consideration.

H.E. Mr Javier Peres de Cuellar
Secretary-General
United Nations
