INTERGOVERNMENTAL NEGOTIATING COMMITTEE
FOR A FRAMEWORK CONVENTION ON CLIMATE CHANGE
Seventh session
New York, 15-19(20) March 1993
Item 3(a) of the provisional agenda

PROCEDURAL, INSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL MATTERS

(a) RULES OF PROCEDURE OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE PARTIES

Note by the secretariat

Article 7, paragraph 2(k) and paragraph 3 of the Convention, from which task C.1 of the INC work plan is derived (see A/AC.237/24, paragraph 44), provide that the Conference of the Parties shall "agree upon and adopt, by consensus, rules of procedure ... for itself and for any subsidiary bodies" and that its rules of procedure and those of the subsidiary bodies established by the Convention shall be adopted "at its first session."

In order to assist the Committee in preparing rules of procedure for adoption by the Conference of the Parties, the secretariat has drawn up a set of draft rules (attached). (Financial rules will be taken up separately, in connection with arrangements for the permanent secretariat.)

These draft rules are derived from the rules of procedure of the Basel Convention on the Control of Transboundary Movements of Hazardous Wastes and their Disposal which are the most recent set of rules of procedure for a conference of the parties. They, in turn, are based on precedent, reflecting, most notably, the rules of procedure of the United Nations' General Assembly, the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme, the Vienna Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer, and the Montreal Protocol on Substances that Deplete the Ozone Layer. This draft has also taken into consideration the Rules of Procedure of the Intergovernmental Negotiating Committee for a Framework Convention on Climate Change, when appropriate.

In the present draft, changes to the Basel model have been made in order to reflect the particular needs and the language of the Framework Convention on Climate Change. Additions and amendments are underlined therein; omissions are indicated by empty square brackets. Articles mentioned in this draft correspond to those of the Climate Change Convention.

The draft sets out decision-making procedures for matters not covered in the Convention as provided in Article 7, paragraph 3 (see Rule 41) but does not endeavour to specify which decisions might require specified majorities.

The draft provides that rules of procedure of the Conference of the Parties shall apply mutatis mutandis to subsidiary bodies.

[] One or more of these officers may be re-elected for one further consecutive term.

3. The President shall participate in the session in that capacity and shall not at the same time exercise the rights of a representative of a Party. At the first meeting of each ordinary session, the President of the previous ordinary session, or in his absence, a Vice-President, shall preside until the meeting has elected a President for the session.

IX. SUBSIDIARY BODIES

Rule 27

1. In addition to the subsidiary bodies established under the Convention, the Conference of the Parties may establish such subsidiary bodies, including committees and working groups, it deems necessary for the implementation of the Convention.

3. Unless otherwise decided by the Conference of the Parties, the Chairman for each such subsidiary body shall be elected by the Conference of the Parties. The Conference of the Parties shall determine the matters to be considered by each such body and may authorize the President, upon the request of the Chairman of a subsidiary body, to adjust the allocation of work.

4. Without prejudice to paragraph 3 of this rule, each subsidiary body shall elect its own officers.

5. A majority of the Parties designated by the Conference of the Parties to take part in the subsidiary body shall constitute a quorum, but in the event of the subsidiary body being open-ended, one quarter of the Parties to the Convention shall constitute a quorum.

6. Unless otherwise decided by the Conference of the Parties these rules shall apply mutatis mutandis to the proceedings of all subsidiary bodies, except that:

- (a) The Chairman of a subsidiary body may exercise the right to vote; and
- (b) Decisions of subsidiary bodies shall be taken by a majority of the Parties present and voting, except that the reconsideration of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal shall require the majority established by rule 39.

X. SECRETARIAT

Rule 28

1. The head of the [] Secretariat of the Convention shall be the Secretary-General of the Conference of the Parties. He, or his representative, shall act in that capacity in all sessions of the Conference of the Parties and of subsidiary bodies.

- (f) Generally perform all other work that the Conference of the Parties may require in light of article 8 of the Convention.

XI. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

Rule 30

1. Meetings of the Conference of the Parties shall be held in public, unless the Conference of the Parties otherwise decides.

2. Meetings of the subsidiary bodies shall be held in private unless the Conference of the Parties otherwise decides.

Rule 31

The President shall declare a meeting of the Conference of the Parties open, permit the debate to proceed and have any decisions taken when representatives of at least two thirds of the Parties to the Convention are present.

Rule 32

1. No one may speak at a meeting of the Conference of the Parties without having previously obtained the permission of the President. Without prejudice to rules 33, 34, 35 and 37, the President shall call upon speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak. The Secretariat shall be in charge of drawing up a list of speakers. The President may call a speaker to order if his remarks are not relevant to the subject under discussion.

2. The Conference of the Parties may, on a proposal from the President or from any Party, limit the time allowed to each speaker and the number of times each representative may speak on a question. Before a decision is taken, two representatives may speak in favour of and two against a proposal to set such limits. When the debate is limited and a speaker exceeds the allotted time, the President shall call him to order without delay.

Rule 33

The Chairman or rapporteur of a subsidiary body may be accorded precedence for the purpose of explaining the conclusions arrived at by his subsidiary body.

Rule 34

During the discussion of any matter, a representative may at any time raise a point of order which shall be decided immediately by the President in accordance with these rules. A representative may appeal against the ruling of the President. The appeal shall be put to the vote immediately and the ruling shall stand unless overruled by a majority of the Parties present and voting. A representative may not, in raising a point of order, speak on the substance of the matter under discussion.

Rule 35

Any motion calling for a decision on the competence of the Conference of the Parties to discuss any matter or to adopt a proposal or an amendment to a proposal submitted to it shall be put to the vote before the matter is discussed or a vote is taken on the proposal or amendment in question.

Rule 36

Proposals and amendments to proposals shall normally be introduced in writing by the Parties and handed to the Secretariat, which shall circulate copies to delegations. As a general rule, no proposal shall be discussed or put to the vote at any meeting unless copies of it have been circulated to delegations not later than the day preceding the meeting. The President may, however, permit the discussion and consideration of amendments to proposals or of procedural motions even though these amendments or motions have not been circulated or have been circulated only the same day.

Rule 37

1. Subject to rule 34, the following motions shall have precedence, in the order indicated below, over all other proposals or motions:

- (a) To suspend a meeting;
- (b) To adjourn a meeting;
- (c) To adjourn the debate on the question under discussion; and
- (d) For the closure of the debate on the question under discussion.

2. Permission to speak on a motion falling within (a) to (d) above shall be granted only to the proposer and, in addition, to one speaker in favour of and two against the motion, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

Rule 38

A proposal or motion may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before voting on it has begun, provided that the motion has not been amended. A proposal or motion withdrawn may be reintroduced by any other Party.

Rule 39

When a proposal has been adopted or rejected, it may not be reconsidered at the same session, unless the Conference of the Parties, by a two-thirds majority of the Parties present and voting, decides in favour of reconsideration. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to the mover and one other supporter, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

XII. VOTING

Rule 40

1. Except as provided for in paragraph 2 of this rule, each Party shall have one vote.
2. Regional economic integration organizations, in matters within their competence, shall exercise their right to vote with a number of votes equal to the number of their member States that are Parties to the Convention. Such an organization shall not exercise its right to vote if any of its member States exercises its right, and vice versa.

Rule 41

1. The Parties shall make every effort to reach agreement on all matters of substance by consensus. If all efforts to reach consensus have been exhausted and no agreement reached, the decision shall, as a last resort, be taken by a two-thirds majority vote of the Parties present and voting, unless otherwise provided by the Convention, the present rules of procedure, or the financial rules referred to in paragraph 2(k) of Article 7 of the Convention.
2. Decisions of the Conference of the Parties on matters of procedure shall be taken by a simple majority vote of the Parties present and voting.
3. If the question arises whether a matter is one of a procedural or substantive nature, the President shall rule on the question. An appeal against this ruling shall be put to the vote immediately and the President's ruling shall stand unless overruled by a majority of the Parties present and voting.
4. If on matters other than elections a vote is equally divided, a second vote shall be taken. If this vote is also equally divided, the proposal shall be regarded as rejected.
5. For the purposes of these rules, the phrase "Parties present and voting" means Parties present at the meeting at which voting takes place and casting an affirmative or negative vote. Parties abstaining from voting shall be considered as not voting.

Rule 42

If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the Conference of the Parties, unless it decides otherwise, shall vote on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted. The Conference of the Parties may, after each vote on a proposal, decide whether to vote on the next proposal.

Rule 43

Any representative may request that any parts of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal be voted on separately. If objection is made to the request for division, the President shall permit two representatives to speak, one in favour of and the other against the motion, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

Rule 44

If the motion referred to in rule 43 is adopted, those parts of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal which are approved shall then be put to the vote as a whole. If all the operative parts of a proposal or amendment have been rejected the proposal or amendment shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Rule 45

A motion is considered to be an amendment to a proposal if it merely adds to, deletes from, or revises parts of that proposal. An amendment shall be voted on before the proposal to which it relates is put to the vote, and if the amendment is adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted on.

Rule 46

If two or more amendments are moved to a proposal, the Conference of the Parties shall first vote on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal, then on the amendment next furthest removed therefrom, and so on, until all amendments have been put to the vote. The President shall determine the order of voting on the amendments under this rule.

Rule 47

Voting, except for election, shall normally be by show of hands. A roll-call vote shall be taken if one is requested by any Party. It shall be taken in the English alphabetical order of the names of the Parties participating in the session, beginning with the Party whose name is drawn by lot by the President. However, if at any time a Party requests a secret ballot, that shall be the method of voting on the issue in question.

Rule 48

The vote of each Party participating in a roll-call vote shall be recorded in the relevant documents of the session.

Rule 49

After the President has announced the beginning of voting, no representative shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of the voting. The President may permit the Parties to explain their votes, either before or after the voting. The President may limit the time to be allowed for such explanations. The President shall not permit the proposer of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal to explain his vote on his own proposal or amendment, except if it has been amended.

Rule 50

All elections shall be held by secret ballot, unless otherwise decided by the Conference of the Parties.

Rule 51

1. If, when one person or one delegation is to be elected, no candidate obtains in the first ballot a majority of the votes cast by the Parties present and voting, a second ballot restricted to the two candidates obtaining the largest number of votes shall be taken. If in the second ballot the votes are equally divided, the President shall decide between the candidates by drawing lots.

2. In the case of a tie in the first ballot among three or more candidates obtaining the largest number of votes, a second ballot shall be held. If a tie results among more than two candidates, the number shall be reduced to two by lot and the balloting, restricted to them, shall continue in accordance with the procedure set forth in paragraph 1 of this rule.

Rule 52

1. When two or more elective places are to be filled at one time under the same conditions, those candidates, not exceeding the number of such places, obtaining in the first ballot the largest number of votes and a majority of the votes cast by the Parties present and voting shall be deemed elected.

2. If the number of candidates obtaining such majority is less than the number of persons or delegations to be elected, there shall be additional ballots to fill the remaining places, the voting being restricted to the candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the previous ballot, to a number not more than twice the places remaining to be filled, provided that, after the third inconclusive ballot, votes may be cast for any eligible person or delegation.

3. If three such unrestricted ballots are inconclusive, the next three ballots shall be restricted to the candidates who obtained the greatest number of votes in the third of the unrestricted ballots, to a number not more than twice the places remaining to be filled, and the following three ballots thereafter shall be unrestricted, and so on until all the places have been filled.

XIII. LANGUAGES

Rule 53

1. The official languages of the Conference of the Parties shall be Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish.

2. The official languages of the subsidiary bodies shall be English, French and Spanish.

Rule 54

1. Statements made in an official language shall be interpreted into the other official languages.

2. A representative may speak in a language other than an official language if he provides for interpretation into one such official language.

Rule 55

Official documents of the sessions shall be drawn up in one of the official languages and translated into the other official languages.

XIV. SOUND RECORDS OF THE SESSIONS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE PARTIES

Rule 56

Sound records of the sessions of the Conference of the Parties, and whenever possible of the subsidiary bodies, shall be kept by the Secretariat in accordance with the practice of the United Nations.

XV. AMENDMENTS TO RULES OF PROCEDURE

Rule 57

1. These rules of procedure may be amended by consensus by the Conference of the Parties.
2. Paragraph 1 of this rule shall likewise apply in case the Conference of the Parties deletes an existing rule of procedure or adopts a new rule of procedure.

XVI. OVERRIDING AUTHORITY OF THE CONVENTION

Rule 58

In the event of any conflict between any provision of these rules and any provision of the Convention, the Convention shall prevail.
