INFORMATION CIRCULAR

To: Members of the staff

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: 1995 COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR ENGLISH
TRANSLATORS/PRÉCIS-WRITERS

1. A competitive examination for the recruitment of English translators/précis-writers will be held on 7 and 8 March 1995 in New York, Geneva, Vienna, London and other locations according to the number and location of qualified candidates convoked for the examination. The purpose of this examination is to establish a roster from which present and future vacancies for English translators/précis-writers at United Nations Headquarters in New York, and at other duty stations in Africa, Asia, Europe and Latin America will be filled. Staff members who are successful in this examination and are selected for inclusion in the roster will be assigned to fill vacancies as they occur, on the recommendation of the Office of Conference and Support Services. Assignments are subject to rotation and translators/précis-writers may thereafter be called upon to serve at other duty stations according to the needs of the Organization. Translators/précis-writers are expected to serve a MINIMUM OF FIVE YEARS in a language post.

2. The examination is open to staff members of the United Nations at the P-3 level and below who meet the eligibility requirements. Staff members from subsidiary organs of the United Nations, as well as staff members whose service is limited to a particular organ, fund or programme of the United Nations or to special missions are considered outside candidates for the purpose of this examination. The assignment of staff members of the United Nations who are successful in the examination and are selected to fill vacancies will be subject to the conditions set out in paragraphs 10 and 11 below.

3. Staff members of the Secretariat applying for the examination must:

(a) Have English as their main language; 1/

(b) Have a perfect command of English and an excellent knowledge of French. They must also have an excellent knowledge of Arabic, Chinese, Russian or Spanish. Knowledge of additional, non-official languages and previous translation experience would be considered an asset. The Board of Examiners, appointed by the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management, requires that candidates' claims to knowledge of official languages must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files. Staff members who have been enrolled in a United Nations language course in any of the languages claimed must have passed the United Nations language proficiency examination in that language. Candidates who have not attended the United Nations language courses in the languages claimed must substantiate their claims to knowledge of those languages. For this purpose, staff members should attach to their application a photocopy of either a diploma or a certificate from a language school or a brief explanation of how they acquired their knowledge of the languages claimed. Staff members are advised to submit photocopies, not originals, of such documentation;

(c) Hold a degree or an equivalent qualification from a university or institution of equivalent status at which English is the language of instruction.

4. The requirement for a university degree or its equivalent mentioned in paragraph 3 (c) may be waived for staff members who, in the judgement of the Board of Examiners, have adequate post-secondary educational qualifications from a university or institution of equivalent status at which the language of instruction is English, in addition to five years of continuous service with the United Nations Secretariat by 31 December 1989.

5. All applications will be reviewed by the Board of Examiners. All applicants will be notified of the Board's decision in respect of their application. THE BOARD'S DECISIONS ARE FINAL.

6. The written examination will consist of six papers:

- I. Translation into English of a general text in French (three hours);
- II. Translation into English of ONE general text to be chosen by the candidate from a total of four texts, in Arabic, Chinese, Russian and Spanish (two hours);
- III. Summary in English of a speech in French (two hours);
- IV. Translation into English of TWO French texts to be chosen by the candidate from a total of five specialized texts (economic, legal, scientific, social and technical) (three hours);
- V. Translation into English of ONE specialized text to be chosen by the candidate from a total of four texts, in Arabic, Chinese, Russian and Spanish (one hour);

- VI. (Optional) Translation into English of ONE general text to be chosen by the candidate from a total of four texts, in Arabic, Chinese, Russian and Spanish (one hour). Candidates who write this optional paper must choose a language other than the language(s) which they chose in papers II and V of the examination.
7. The use of a dictionary or any other reference material is NOT permitted during the examination.
8. On the basis of the results obtained in the written examination, the Board of Examiners will invite selected candidates to an interview, which will normally take place 10 to 12 weeks after the written component of the examination. The interview will consist in part of an oral translation, which the candidate will be asked to do after 30 minutes' preparation. In addition, the Board will interview each candidate to assess professional experience, knowledge of the United Nations, willingness to serve at any duty station and, in particular, ability to work as a member of a team. The interview is an integral part of the examination. Therefore, candidates who are invited to an interview SHOULD NOT assume that they will be offered an assignment.
9. On the basis of the overall results of the examination, the Board will recommend to the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management the names of candidates for inclusion in the roster. All candidates admitted to the examination will be informed in writing of the Board's final recommendation in respect of their candidature. The Board's recommendations are NOT subject to appeal. The Board DOES NOT release individual results.
10. Staff members selected to fill vacancies will be assigned as English translators/précis-writers for a trial period of two years. Staff members at the P-1 level or below will receive a special post allowance to the P-2 level. Staff members at the P-2 and P-3 levels will be assigned at their respective levels.
11. Staff members with a special post allowance to the P-2 level and those already at the P-2 level who complete the trial period successfully and are recommended by the Office of Conference and Support Services and the Office of Human Resources Management may be promoted to the P-3 level. Staff members already at the P-3 level who complete the trial period successfully will be confirmed in their translation functions at the P-3 level. Staff members who do not complete the trial period successfully will be reassigned to posts at their previous levels and the special post allowance, if any, will be discontinued.
12. English translators/précis-writers are called upon to translate into English from French and also from the other official languages of the United Nations (Arabic, Chinese, Russian and Spanish) and occasionally from other languages. They are also required to attend meetings of United Nations bodies and draft English summary records of the proceedings. These précis-writing duties may represent a substantial and important part of the work of English translators/précis-writers.
13. Upon completion of a training period, translators/précis-writers may be required to work on word-processing or similar data-entry equipment for translation and terminological purposes.

14. Staff members applying for the examination should complete the attached form and submit it, NOT LATER THAN 16 January 1995, to:

Competitive Examination for English Translators/Précis-writers
Recruitment and Placement Division
Room S-2535G
United Nations Secretariat
New York, NY 10017

15. In order to ensure receipt of all applications submitted by staff members from offices away from Headquarters, these staff members are requested to return their application to the Recruitment and Placement Division through the chief administrative officer or director of the United Nations information centre of their respective duty stations before 16 January 1995, the deadline for receipt of applications in the Recruitment and Placement Division.

16. Staff members at Headquarters may obtain copies of model examination papers from the Examinations and Tests Section, room S-2575, United Nations Secretariat, New York, NY 10017. Staff members serving at the United Nations Office at Geneva may obtain such copies from the Training and Examinations Section, Villa Le Bocage, Office 4.
