1993/... Situation in South Africa

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling the Declaration on Apartheid and its Destructive Consequences in southern Africa, adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution S-16/1 of 14 December 1989,

Recalling also all the relevant resolutions of the Commission on Human Rights, in particular resolution 1993/9 of 26 February 1993,

Mindful of General Assembly resolution 33/165 of 20 December 1978 on the status of persons refusing service in military or police forces used to enforce apartheid,

Taking note of the decisions of the Council of Ministers of the Organization of African Unity at its fifty-sixth Ordinary Session held at Dakar, from 22 to 28 June 1992, in particular the decision urging the international community to refrain from establishing official links with South Africa until the establishment of an interim Government and the holding of free and fair elections on the basis of a new constitution,

Welcoming the accord of 16 August 1991 between the United Nations and the Government of South Africa which opens the way for refugees to return to South Africa and for the release of political prisoners,

Concerned that many political prisoners are still incarcerated, that political trials of some opponents of apartheid still continue and that not all political exiles have been allowed to return,

Gravely concerned at the new wave of violence that is further devastating South Africa and the role of the Government of South Africa in this regard,

Gravely concerned also at the continued military cooperation between South Africa and some Governments,

Aware of the great courage, perseverance and sacrifices of the people of southern Africa in the face of aggression and oppression by the Government of South Africa,

Noting with great concern that the negotiation process within the framework of the Convention for a Democratic South Africa (CODESA) is deadlocked because of the refusal by the Government of South Africa to follow the universally accepted democratic principles for implementing constitutional change,

Concerned that the violence in South Africa is escalating in spite of the constant appeals by the international community to end the carnage which constitutes a major obstacle to the negotiation process,

Recalling the establishment and launching of the Action for Resisting Invasion, Colonialism and Apartheid Fund (A/41/697-S/18392) at the Eighth Conference of the Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries,

1. Reaffirms that apartheid is a crime against humanity;
2. Also reaffirms the right of all persons to refuse service in military or police forces when they are used to enforce apartheid;

3. Strongly condemns the perpetrators of the violence that continues to devastate South Africa and denounces the Government of South Africa for its failure to act to stop the violence;

4. Calls upon the South African authorities to exercise effectively their responsibility to maintain law and order, to stop the violence, to prosecute its perpetrators and to protect all citizens, irrespective of their political affiliation;

5. Reiterates the call contained in the Declaration on Apartheid and its Destructive Consequences in southern Africa for, inter alia, the unconditional release of all political prisoners and detainees by the Government of South Africa, the removal of all troops from the townships, the repeal of the remaining legislation designed to circumscribe political activity and the cessation of all political trials and executions;

6. Urges all States to continue to provide, both individually and collectively, moral and material assistance to the oppressed people of South Africa;

7. Calls upon the Government of South Africa not to proceed with the execution of persons convicted and sentenced to death for so-called "security", "security-related" or "unrest-related" offences;

8. Calls upon the Government of South Africa to bring before court on appropriate charges those members of the security forces or other government organs or other persons against whom prima facie evidence of participation in the killing of residents in black areas or in the murder of political opponents of apartheid exists;

9. Reiterates that unity of action and cohesion among the liberation movements and other democratic South African forces within the framework of the United Patriotic Front is absolutely necessary at this crucial stage of the struggle and constitutes the best means of hastening the process of negotiations aimed at the advent of a non-racial, democratic and united South Africa;

10. Urges the international community to refrain from establishing official links with South Africa until an interim Government responsible for supervising the transition to democratic rule, including the holding of free and fair elections under universal adult suffrage on a common voters' roll, has been put in place in the country;

11. Affirms that any relaxation of pressure on South Africa at this time would be a violation of the Declaration on Apartheid and its Destructive Consequences in southern Africa;

12. Vigorously condemns all military collaboration with the Government of South Africa, particularly in the nuclear field.
