Forty-ninth session Agenda item 162

FINANCING OF THE UNITED NATIONS MISSION OF OBSERVERS IN TAJIKISTAN

Report of the Secretary-General

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The United Nations Mission of Observers in Tajikistan was established by the Security Council in its resolution 968 (1994) of 16 December 1994 for a period up to six months, subject to the proviso that it would continue beyond 6 February 1995 only if the Secretary-General reported to the Council by that date that the parties had agreed to extend the agreement of 17 September 1994. The Mission's presence in Tajikistan has been continued for another month, until 6 March 1995, on the recommendation of the Secretary-General and endorsed by the members of the Security Council.

The authorized strength of the Mission is 40 military observers and 44 civilian staff (18 international and 26 local).

The present report covers the budget of the Mission from its inception on 16 December 1994 to 30 June 1995 and for the 12-month period from 1 July 1995 to 30 June 1996. It provides for the deployment of 40 military observers and 44 civilian staff and includes start-up costs of $1.2 million.

The actions to be taken by the General Assembly are set out in paragraph 36 of the report, including the establishment of a Special Account for the United Nations Mission of Observers in Tajikistan, the appropriation and assessment of the amount of $4,339,700 gross ($4,138,400 net) for the Mission for the period from 16 December 1994 to 30 June 1995 and provision by commitment authorization at a monthly rate of $752,800 gross ($716,600 net) and for the assessment of such amounts for the period beyond 30 June 1995.

I. INTRODUCTION

- 1. The question of the situation in Tajikistan was first brought to the attention of the Security Council on 30 October 1992. The Secretary-General, in his peacemaking initiative and in close consultation with the Security Council, sent to Tajikistan a small integrated United Nations unit of political, military and humanitarian officers to monitor the situation on the ground, provide liaison services and constitute a ground core for any possible more extensive United Nations participation in the regional efforts in Tajikistan in the future. The unit became operational on 21 January 1993.
- 2. In view of the need to establish a cease-fire and start a political dialogue among all concerned for the earliest possible solution of the problem, the Secretary-General appointed his Special Envoy for Tajikistan in April 1993. In consultation with the Security Council, the mandates of the Special Envoy and the small United Nations unit were extended.
- 3. The Government of Tajikistan and the Tajik opposition held the first inter-Tajik talks in April 1994 in Moscow and the second round of talks in June 1994 at Tehran under United Nations auspices.
- 4. Following two rounds of inter-Tajik talks, high-level consultations were held in Tehran in September 1994, which enabled the Tajik parties to sign the agreement on a temporary cease-fire and the cessation of other hostile acts on the Tajik border and within the country for the duration of the talks (hereinafter referred to as "the agreement"). $\underline{1}/$
- 5. In response to the request made by the Tajik parties in the agreement, the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Security Council, extended the mandates of his Special Envoy and the small group of United Nations officials in Tajikistan for a further period of four months and, as a provisional measure, increased the strength of military observers to 17, pending a decision by the Security Council to establish a new United Nations observer mission in Tajikistan.
- 6. The third round of inter-Tajik talks on national reconciliation under United Nations auspices was held in Islamabad from 20 October to 1 November 1994. In the course of talks in Islamabad, the parties agreed on the extension of the cease-fire agreement until 6 February 1995. The two sides also signed the protocol on the Joint Commission, 2/ which is composed of representatives of the Government of Tajikistan and the Tajik opposition, to monitor the implementation of the agreement. The protocol contains the necessary provisions for the functioning of the Joint Commission.
- 7. In his report to the Security Council on the situation in Tajikistan, $\frac{3}{2}$ the Secretary-General recommended to the Council the establishment of a small observer mission in Tajikistan based on the concept of operations and strength described in the report.
- 8. By its resolution 968 (1994) of 16 December 1994, the Security Council decided to establish the United Nations Mission of Observers in Tajikistan

(UNMOT) in accordance with the plan outlined by the Secretary-General in his report. $\underline{3}/$

- 9. By the same resolution, the Security Council decided that the Mission be established for a period up to six months, subject to the proviso that it would continue beyond 6 February 1995 only if the Secretary-General reported to the Council by that date that the parties had agreed to extend the agreement of 17 September 1994, and that they remained committed to an effective cease-fire, national reconciliation and the promotion of democracy.
- 10. The mandate of UNMOT consists of the following:
- (a) To assist the Joint Commission to monitor the implementation of the agreement of 17 September 1994;
- (b) To investigate reports of cease-fire violations and to report on them to the United Nations and to the Joint Commission;
- (c) To provide its good offices as stipulated in the agreement of 17 September 1994;
- (d) To maintain close contacts with the parties to the conflict, as well as close liaison with the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) mission in Tajikistan and with the collective peace-keeping forces of the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS) in Tajikistan and with the border forces;
- (e) To provide support for the efforts of the Secretary-General's Special Envoy;
- (f) To provide political liaison and coordination services that could facilitate expeditious humanitarian assistance by the international community.
- 11. In paragraph 29 of his previous report to the Security Council, $\underline{3}/$ the Secretary-General had indicated that the estimated cost of the Mission from its inception in December 1994 to 6 February 1995 would be approximately \$1,895,800 gross, including start-up costs of \$788,300. The estimated monthly costs thereafter would be approximately \$442,300. The costs relating to the activities of the Special Envoy and the small United Nations unit, prior to the establishment of UNMOT, were financed under the regular budget.
- 12. With respect to the method of financing, the Secretary-General indicated, in paragraph 30 of his report 3/ that, should the Security Council decide to establish an observer mission in Tajikistan, it would be his recommendation to the General Assembly that the costs relating thereto should be considered an expense of the Organization to be borne by Member States in accordance with Article 17, paragraph 2, of the Charter of the United Nations and that the assessments to be levied on Member States should be credited to a special account to be established for that purpose.
- 13. Pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4 of Security Council resolution 968 (1994), the Secretary-General submitted his report on the situation in Tajikistan on

- 4 February 1995. $\underline{4}/$ The report provides information on the activities of UNMOT and the efforts undertaken by the Secretary-General, in accordance with the resolutions of the Council, to make progress towards national reconciliation.
- 14. In a letter addressed to the Secretary-General on 25 January 1995, the President of Tajikistan stated that his Government was prepared to extend the agreement for any length of time without any additional conditions. $\underline{5}$ /
- 15. The head of the Tajik opposition delegation addressed a letter to the Secretary-General on 27 January 1995 in which he declared, inter alia, a one-month extension of the agreement, i.e. until 6 March 1995. $\underline{6}$ /
- 16. As a result, the parties have made it possible for the Secretary-General to comply only partially with the requirements of paragraph 3 of Security Council resolution 968 (1994).
- 17. In the same report, the Secretary-General indicated that the activities of UNMOT connected with the implementation of the agreement, imperfect as the latter may be, were an important stabilizing factor in the country. Accordingly, the Secretary-General recommended that UNMOT's presence in Tajikistan be continued for another month, until 6 March 1995, on the understanding that every effort would be made during that period to obtain agreement on the holding of the next round of talks as soon as possible. The recommendation was endorsed by the members of the Security Council. $\underline{7}/$

II. CONCEPT OF THE OPERATION

- 18. The Joint Commission established under the Tehran agreement constitutes the formal machinery for implementing the agreement.
- 19. UNMOT would act at the request of the Joint Commission or on its own initiative. In case of a complaint about a cease-fire violation, it would investigate in order to establish the facts. It would report its findings to the Joint Commission and to United Nations Headquarters.
- 20. The nature of the elements that make up the cease-fire package and the responsibilities of the United Nations under the agreement call for an integrated civil-military operation in Tajikistan. It should be headed by a person with political experience, supported by a small civil-affairs staff as well as military observers. The personnel would be deployed in teams at a number of offices in the country. Each office would serve as a base from which the teams would cover a geographic area of responsibility.
- 21. UNMOT would be under the exclusive direction of the Secretary-General and would discharge its responsibilities with complete objectivity and impartiality.
- 22. A military complement of 40 officers would suffice to strengthen the headquarters in Dushanbe and the offices in Kurgan-Tyube, Pyanj and Garm and to open additional offices, for example in Tavildara and Khorog.

23. Civilian support to the Chief of Mission would consist of seven staff members, four at the mission headquarters and three civil-affairs officers at the other offices throughout the country. International support staff would also be required as well as local staff, including interpreters.

III. INITIAL MEASURES AUTHORIZING COMMITMENTS FOR THE UNITED NATIONS MISSION OF OBSERVERS IN TAJIKISTAN

24. In order for UNMOT to carry out the tasks entrusted to it by the Security Council in its resolution 968 (1994), the concurrence of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (ACABQ) was sought to enter into commitments in the amount of $2,986,600 gross ($2,898,700 net) for the period from 16 December 1994 to 6 March 1995 in accordance with the terms of paragraph 2, section IV, of General Assembly resolution 49/233 of 23 December 1994 relating to financial authorization for the start-up or expansion phase of peace-keeping operations. By letter dated 8 February 1995, the Advisory Committee indicated that the requirements of UNMOT for the period from 16 December 1994 to 2 February 1995, the date on which the Committee considered the matter, in the amount of $1,759,700 gross ($1,711,800 net) be met from within the Secretary-General's existing authority under General Assembly resolution 48/229 on unforseen and extraordinary expenses for the biennium 1994-1995. With regard to the requirements of UNMOT for the period from 3 February to 6 March 1995, the Advisory Committee concurred in the entering into commitments in an amount not exceeding $651,600 gross ($611,600 net) under the terms of paragraph 2, section IV, of Assembly resolution 49/233 of 23 December 1994.

IV. COST ESTIMATES OF THE UNITED NATIONS MISSION OF OBSERVERS IN TAJIKISTAN FOR THE PERIOD FROM 16 DECEMBER 1994 TO 30 JUNE 1996

25. In line with the decision of the General Assembly in its resolution 49/253 to establish a financial year from July to June, the cost estimates presented herewith cover the period from 16 December 1994 to 30 June 1995. The estimate for this period, including start-up costs ($1,198,800), amounts to $4,339,700 gross ($4,138,400 net) subject to the extension of the mandate of the Mission beyond 6 March 1995. Should the Security Council decide to continue UNMOT beyond the six-month period authorized in its resolution 968 (1994) and assuming continuance of its existing responsibilities, the cost for the period from 1 July 1995 to 30 June 1996 is estimated at $9,033,600 gross ($8,599,200 net). The distribution of the requirements by budget line item of the cost estimate is contained in annex I to the present report. Supplementary information providing a detailed description of the expenditure under each line item is provided in annex II. Annex III provides the proposed civilian staffing table of UNMOT. Annex IV provides an organizational chart of UNMOT, and civilian staff and related costs are shown in annex V.

V. VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS

26. The Security Council, in paragraph 13 of its resolution 968 (1994), requested the Secretary-General to establish a voluntary fund for contributions in support of the implementation of the agreement of 17 September 1994, in particular in support of the activities of the Joint Commission, and encouraged Member States to contribute thereto. Pursuant to the request of the Security Council, the Secretary-General established a Trust Fund and appealed to Member States to give serious consideration to contributing to the Trust Fund. No contributions have been received so far.

VI. FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS MISSION OF OBSERVERS IN TAJIKISTAN

27. The Secretary-General recommends the establishment of a special account for UNMOT to be administered in accordance with financial regulation 6.6 for the purpose of accounting for income received and expenditure made in respect of the Mission. Except for the period from its inception on 16 December 1994 to 30 June 1995 the financial accounts will be kept for a 12-month period beginning on 1 July of one year and ending on 30 June of the following year.

VII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REQUESTED BY THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON ADMINISTRATIVE AND BUDGETARY QUESTIONS

- 28. In a letter dated 8 February 1995 from the Chairman of the Advisory Committee addressed to the Secretary-General, the Advisory Committee requested the Secretary-General to include in his report on financing of UNMOT the type of support that would be provided by UNMOT to the Joint Commission and the related budgetary implications.
- 29. In the same letter, the Advisory Committee also requested the Secretary-General to specify clearly the nature of cooperation between UNMOT and the OSCE mission, the CIS collective peace-keeping forces in Tajikistan and the border forces and the extent to which those forces provided assistance to UNMOT.
- 30. The functioning of the Joint Commission is defined by the protocol, $\underline{2}/$ paragraph 9 of which, entitled "Logistical support for the Joint Commission activities", reads as follows:

"The Government of the Republic of Tajikistan pledges to provide logistical support for the Joint Commission, including providing office space, living quarters and board for the members of the Joint Commission on the territory of the Republic while the opposition provides the same on the territory of Afghanistan. The parties, with United Nations assistance, appeal to the collective peace-keeping forces of the Commonwealth of Independent States stationed on the territory of Tajikistan and to the international community for financial and logistical support for the Joint Commission. A trust fund to support the work of the Commission, established on the basis of voluntary contributions, will be administered by the United Nations mission in Tajikistan."

As stated, the Secretary-General established this fund and issued an appeal to Member States for contributions.

- 31. Members of UNMOT share their vehicles with members of the Joint Commission when carrying out joint investigations of alleged violations of the agreement. All requirements for logistical support, however, have been based solely on the needs of the United Nations and therefore this arrangement poses no additional cost to the United Nations.
- 32. The mandates of UNMOT, the collective peace-keeping forces and the border forces in Tajikistan are separate and distinct. With regard to the nature of cooperation between UNMOT and the OSCE mission, as stated in paragraph 2 (d) of Security Council resolution 968 (1994), UNMOT is mandated to maintain close contacts with the parties to the conflict, as well as close liaison with that organization's mission in Tajikistan and with the collective peace-keeping forces and with the border forces.
- 33. The collective peace-keeping forces provide logistic and security support for humanitarian relief operations in the country undertaken by the United Nations and other international organizations and agencies. Based on an understanding between UNMOT and the Commander of the collective peace-keeping forces, they provide security guarantees for United Nations and other international personnel in Tajikistan as well.
- 34. The border forces have provided assistance to the Joint Commission and UNMOT in conducting investigations of alleged violations of the agreement by providing air transport to UNMOT and members of the Joint Commission.
- 35. With regard to cooperation with the OSCE mission, the United Nations efforts in Tajikistan are concentrated on a political solution of the conflict, while the OSCE mission in Dushanbe gives primary attention to the promotion of democracy, human rights and democratic institution-building. UNMOT and the OSCE mission hold regular meetings and exchange information on activities related to their respective mandates. They make joint political démarches on important issues, such as the presidential elections. Through their joint efforts, they achieved the release of a number of political prisoners in the country. The heads of UNMOT and the OSCE missions participate in the inter-Tajik talks.

VIII. ACTION TO BE TAKEN BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT ITS FORTY-NINTH SESSION

- 36. The actions to be taken by the General Assembly at its forty-ninth session in connection with the financing of UNMOT are as follows:
- (a) The establishment of a special account for the United Nations Mission of Observers in Tajikistan;

- (b) The appropriation and the assessment of the amount of $4,339,700 gross ($4,138,400 net) for UNMOT for the period from 16 December 1994 to 30 June 1995;
- (c) With regard to the period after 30 June 1995, provision by commitment authorization at a monthly rate of $752,800 gross ($716,600 net) and for the assessment of such amounts, should the Security Council decide to renew the mandate of UNMOT beyond that date.

COST ESTIMATE FOR THE PERIODS FROM 16 DECEMBER 1994 TO 30 JUNE 1995 AND FROM 1 JULY 1995 TO 30 JUNE 1996

Supplementary information

(In United States dollars)

I. COST PARAMETERS

1. The cost estimates set out herein were calculated, where applicable, on the basis of the cost parameters indicated below.

A. Deployment of military personnel

2. As of 16 December 1994, 17 military observers were in the Mission area as part of the small group of United Nations officials in Tajikistan. Five more military observers were deployed by the end of January. In addition, 11 military observers are expected to arrive in the Mission area in February, while 7 will arrive early in May 1995. The detailed phasing-in schedule is shown below.

Phasing-in of military observers

B. Deployment of civilian personnel

3. As of 31 January 1995, 11 international staff were on board. In addition, 7 international staff are expected to be deployed by 10 February 1995.

C. Civilian personnel cost

4. Salaries and common staff costs of international staff are net of staff assessment and are based on New York standard rates. Salaries and common staff costs of local staff are based on the local salary scale established for Dushanbe.

D. Mission subsistence allowance

5. Mission subsistence allowance is payable to all mission personnel at the rate of $115 per day. The rates are subject to supplements of 10 and 25 per cent for staff at the D-1/D-2 and assistant secretary-general/under-secretary-general levels, respectively.

E. Rotation/travel cost to and from the Mission area

6. The travel of military observers and international civilian staff to the Mission area has been estimated at $1,800 for the one-way economy class air fare and $2,500 for the one-way business class air fare. In addition, a total of $2,000 is provided for travel subsistence allowance ($200), terminal expenses ($100) and the cost of excess accompanied baggage ($1,700).

II. REQUIREMENTS

1. Military personnel costs

- (a) Military observers
- (i) Mission subsistence allowance
- 7. Provision is made for payment of mission subsistence allowance for 36 military observers in accordance with the deployment schedule shown in paragraph 2 above and at the rate indicated in paragraph 5 above for the period from 16 December 1994 to 30 June 1995. Provision is also made for the period from 1 July 1995 to 30 June 1996.

(ii) Travel costs

8. Provision is made for the one-way travel of 23 military observers to the Mission area based on the rates indicated in paragraph 6 above. Also provided is the cost of one rotation travel for 17 military observers for the period from 16 December 1994 to 30 June 1995. Further provision is made for the cost of two rotations for 40 military observers for the period from 1 July 1995 to 30 June 1996.

(d) Spare parts, repairs and maintenance

42. Provision is made for spare parts for a full fleet of 25 United Nations-owned vehicles, prorated, as the 9 vehicles to be transferred from the United Nations supply depot in Brindisi are not expected in a Mission area for a month. The estimated monthly cost per vehicle is $80.

(e) Petrol, oil and lubricants

43. Provision for petrol is based on requirements for 25 United Nations-owned vehicles, taking into account the fact that delivery of the 9 vehicles mentioned above is expected one month after inception of the Mission. It is assumed that all vehicles will be travelling an average of 75 miles per day. The estimate is based on a daily consumption of 5 gallons of petrol for each of 5 sedans, which average 15 miles per gallon, and 7.5 gallons for each of the 20 4x4 vehicles, which achieve 10 miles per gallon. The cost of petrol is estimated at $2.94 per gallon in the light of past experience in the Mission area.

44. The cost of oil and lubricants at 10 per cent of fuel is also included. The estimated monthly cost is $17,500.

(f) Vehicle insurance

45. Provision is made for third-party liability insurance carried by the United Nations to cover 25 vehicles based on an annual premium of $400 per vehicle. The estimated monthly cost is $800.

6. Air operations

(a) Helicopter operations

46. As a result of poor road conditions and mountainous terrain, surface transport is slow and insecure. Provision is made for hiring one helicopter at the all-inclusive cost of $4,500 per hour for the period from 1 July 1995-30 June 1996. It is anticipated that a total of 40 hours will be flown each month.

- (b) Fixed-wing aircraft
- (i) Hire/charter costs
- 47. Provision is made for a monthly supply flight by special charter from Islamabad to Dushanbe, estimated at $3,400 per flight.

- (ii) Aviation fuel and lubricants

 - (d) Other air operations cost
- 53. No provision is required under this heading.

- 7. Naval operations
- 54. No provision is required under this heading.
- 8. Communications
 - (a) Complementary communications
 - (i) Communications equipment
- 55. It was originally planned that UNMOT would have a headquarters and six outstations for the military observers. The communications equipment for this was planned to be of three different types. It was intended that there should be two INMARSAT "A", for use in the headquarters to provide communications with the outstations in Tajikistan and to United Nations Headquarters in New York. One of the two terminals would be located in the UNMOT headquarters radio room and the other in the operations room. In addition, six INMARSAT "C" would be required to transmit data to headquarters for use in the six originally planned outstations. Finally, six INMARSAT "M" would be required for an emergency voice communications facility for use in an accident or a crisis, again located in each of the outstations.
- 56. The recent work undertaken by the military consultant on the disposition of the observation posts has changed the requirement from six to eight planned sites. As a result, four more INMARSAT terminals will be required, two type "C" and two type "M" for emergency and mobile use. It is intended, however, to fulfil this additional requirement with existing communications resources.
- 57. Accordingly, provision is made for the purchase of the following communications equipment.
