PROGRAMME BUDGET FOR THE BIENNIUM 1994-1995

REVIEW OF THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS AND DECISIONS ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT ITS TENTH
SPECIAL SESSION: ADVISORY BOARD ON DISARMAMENT MATTERS;
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR DISARMAMENT RESEARCH

Request for subvention to the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research resulting from the recommendations of the Board of Trustees of the Institute contained in document A/49/329

Note by the Secretary-General

1. In accordance with the provisions of article VIII, paragraph 3, of the statute of the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research (UNIDIR), 1/ the recommendation by the Board of Trustees of the Institute for a subvention of $220,000 for 1995 from the regular budget of the United Nations is hereby transmitted to the General Assembly for approval.

2. The Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters, in its capacity as Board of Trustees of UNIDIR, adopted the 1995 draft programme of work and proposed budget estimates of the Institute (A/49/329, annex II). The Board noted that, while efforts were continuing to increase the portion of administrative costs in tied contributions, many actual and potential donors were facing difficult economic times. It therefore recommended a subvention of $220,000 from the regular budget of the United Nations for 1995. The subvention has remained unchanged since 1990. It may be recalled that the programme budget of the United Nations for the biennium 1994-1995 contains a provision of $440,000 as a grant, representing the United Nations subvention to UNIDIR for 1994-1995. By section VIII of its resolution 48/230 A of 23 December 1993, the General Assembly took note of the note by the Secretary-General (A/C.5/48/16) and the recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions 2/ and approved a subvention of $220,000 from the regular budget of the United Nations for 1994. Notwithstanding the necessary appropriation in the programme budget for the biennium 1994-1995, a formal request for a subvention for 1995 of $220,000 is being submitted to the General Assembly in keeping with established procedure.

3. Should the General Assembly decide to approve the recommendation of the Board of Trustees of UNIDIR, no additional appropriation would be required under section 3B of the programme budget for the biennium 1994-1995.

4. In its resolution 44/201 B of 2 December 1989, section IV of which was entitled "Subvention from the regular budget to the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research", the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General "to report annually to the General Assembly on the situation of the Institute". In this connection it should be noted that the financial situation of the Institute is as follows:

(a) Funds available at the beginning of 1994 amounted to $436,700, including the operating cash reserve of $93,500;

(b) Total income recorded for 1994 from voluntary contributions ($770,300), public donations ($270,000), interest ($27,300), miscellaneous sources ($16,100), including income from sales of UNIDIR publications, and the subvention from the United Nations regular budget ($220,000) is estimated at $1,303,700. That revised estimate reflects an increase of $528,000 over the initial estimates provided in 1993, owing entirely to an increase in voluntary contributions and to contributions which were earmarked for 1994 ($46,000) but received in 1993. The details of 1994 and 1995 contributions are provided in annexes I and II to the present document;

(c) Total 1994 estimated expenditure was $1,110,300, which includes a provision of $42,400 for programme support costs. Requirements for 1995 are estimated at $1,077,000, inclusive of $40,800 for programme support. The breakdown of 1994 actual expenditure and 1995 estimates is provided in annex III to the present document;

(d) Funds available at the end of 1994 are estimated at $496,600, plus an operating reserve of $133,500.

5. It may be recalled that, in section III, paragraph 2, of its resolution 47/219 of 23 December 1992, the General Assembly decided "to keep under review the level of support costs charged to the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research". In this connection it should be noted that when the Trust Fund for UNIDIR was established in 1983 in response to Assembly resolution 37/99 K of 13 December 1982, it was subject to the standard rate of programme support charge, namely, 13 per cent. By the end of 1983, however, the Institute, faced with financial difficulties, sought the concurrence of the Controller of the United Nations to have the Trust Fund for UNIDIR exempted from programme support charges. In addition, the Chairman of the then Advisory Board on Disarmament Studies (which also acted as the Board of Trustees of UNIDIR) wrote to the Secretary-General requesting him to waive the charges for certain administrative and other support services provided by the Secretary-General to UNIDIR and normally subject to reimbursement by the Institute.

6. After reviewing the financial situation, the Under-Secretary-General for Administration and Management, on behalf of the Secretary-General, agreed that, effective 1 January 1984, the rate of reimbursement by UNIDIR for programme support would be reduced to 5 per cent, and that the cost of miscellaneous services which heretofore had been reimbursed by UNIDIR to the United Nations would be absorbed under the regular budget of the Organization. This arrangement is still in effect.

7. On the basis of actual workload statistics in 1994, the estimated cost of programme support provided to UNIDIR in 1994 by the United Nations Office at Geneva would amount to $171,800, as reflected in annex IV to the present report.

8. For 1994, the programme support cost to be paid by UNIDIR was estimated at $50,900, representing 5 per cent of an estimated expenditure level of $1,237,400, less the United Nations subvention of $220,000. Payment of the programme support cost by UNIDIR for 1994 was $42,400, representing 5 per cent of the actual expenditure of $1,067,900, less the United Nations subvention of $220,000.
