INFORMATION CIRCULAR

To: Members of the staff

From: The Director of Personnel

Subject: 1994 COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR ARABIC INTERPRETERS

1. A competitive examination for Arabic interpreters will be held in May-June 1994 in New York, Geneva, Vienna, Cairo and other locations according to the number and location of qualified candidates convoked for the examination and the availability of necessary technical equipment. The purpose of this examination is to establish a roster from which present and future vacancies for Arabic interpreters will be filled.

2. The examination is open to staff members of the United Nations at the P-3 level and below who meet the eligibility requirements, as well as qualified external candidates. Staff members from subsidiary organs of the United Nations and staff members whose service is limited to a particular organ, fund or programme of the United Nations or special missions are considered outside candidates for the purpose of this examination. Staff members who are successful in the examination and are selected for inclusion in the roster will be assigned in New York to fill vacancies as they occur in the Arabic Interpretation Section, Interpretation, Meetings and Documentation Division, Office of Conference Services of the United Nations Secretariat. Assignments are subject to rotation and interpreters may thereafter be called upon to serve at other duty stations in Africa, Asia and Europe according to the needs of the Organization. Interpreters are expected to serve a MINIMUM OF FIVE YEARS in a language post. The assignment of staff members of the United Nations who are successful in the examination and are selected to fill vacancies will be subject to the conditions set out in paragraphs 9 and 10 below.

3. Staff members of the Secretariat applying for the examination must:

(a) Have Arabic as their main language; 1/

(b) Have a perfect command of Arabic and an excellent knowledge of English or French. The Board of Examiners, appointed by the Director of Personnel, requires that candidates' claims to knowledge of official languages must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files. Staff members who have been enrolled in a United Nations language course in any of the languages claimed must have passed the United Nations language proficiency examination in that language. Candidates who have not attended the United Nations language courses in the languages claimed must substantiate their claims to knowledge of those languages. For this purpose, staff members should attach to their application either a photocopy of a diploma or a certificate from a language school or a brief explanation of how they acquired their knowledge of the languages claimed. Staff members are advised to submit photocopies, not originals, of such documentation;

(c) Hold a degree or an equivalent qualification from a university or institution of equivalent status at which Arabic is the language of instruction or hold a university degree from a recognized school of interpretation. The Board of Examiners may, at its discretion, admit a candidate graduating from a university whose principal language of instruction is other than Arabic, provided he/she has adequate secondary educational qualifications from an establishment at which the principal language of instruction is Arabic;

(d) Have 200 days of experience as conference interpreters or 200 days of work experience in the field of translation, editing, verbatim reporting or related fields.

4. The requirement for a university degree or its equivalent from a university or institution of equivalent status may be waived for staff members who, in the judgement of the Board of Examiners, have adequate post-secondary educational qualifications from a university or institution of equivalent status and adequate secondary educational qualifications from an establishment at which the principal language of instruction is Arabic, in addition to five years of continuous service with the United Nations Secretariat by 31 December 1989.

5. All applications will be reviewed by the Board of Examiners. All applicants will be notified of the Board's decision in respect of their application. THE BOARD'S DECISIONS ARE FINAL.

6. The examination will consist of two parts:

(a) Interpretation into Arabic from recordings of four speeches delivered in English or French (approximately 5 to 10 minutes per recording);

(b) Interpretation into English or French from recordings of four speeches delivered in Arabic (approximately 5 to 10 minutes per recording).

7. On the basis of the results of the examination, the Board of Examiners will invite selected candidates to an interview, which will normally take place 10 to 12 weeks after the examination. The Board will interview the selected candidates to assess general culture, professional experience, knowledge of the United Nations, personality, willingness to serve at any duty station and, in particular, ability to work as a member of a team. The interview is an integral part of the examination. Therefore, candidates who are invited for an interview should NOT assume that they will be offered an assignment.

8. On the basis of the overall results of the examination, the Board will recommend to the Director of Personnel the most suitable candidates for inclusion in the roster. All candidates admitted to the examination will be informed in writing of the Board's final recommendation in respect of their candidature. The Board's recommendations are NOT subject to appeal. The Board DOES NOT release individual results.

9. Staff members selected to fill vacancies will be assigned as Arabic interpreters for a trial period of two years. Staff members at the P-1 level or below will receive a special post allowance to the P-2 level. Staff members at the P-2 and P-3 levels will be assigned at their respective levels.

10. Staff members with a special post allowance to the P-2 level and those already at the P-2 level who complete the trial period successfully and are recommended by the Office of Conference Services and the Office of Human Resources Management will be promoted to the P-3 level. To be promoted to the P-3 level staff members must have completed the trial period to the complete satisfaction of the Interpretation Service. Staff members already at the P-3 level who complete the trial period successfully will be confirmed in their interpretation functions at the P-3 level. Staff members who do not complete the trial period successfully will be reassigned to posts at their previous levels and the special post allowance, if any, will be discontinued.

11. Staff members applying for the examination should complete the attached form and submit it, NOT LATER THAN 31 March 1994, to:

Competitive Examination for Arabic Interpreters
Recruitment and Placement Division
Room S-2535G
United Nations Secretariat
