SECRETARY-GENERAL ESTABLISHES TRUST FUND TO FINANCE
THIRD WORLD OBSERVERS TO SOUTH AFRICAN ELECTIONS

The following was issued today by the Spokesman for Secretary-General Boutros Boutros-Ghali:

The Secretary-General has established a Trust Fund to finance third world observers to the South African elections scheduled to take place on 27 April.

The Fund, which was proposed by the Secretary-General in his last report on South Africa (document S/1994/16), was welcomed by the Security Council in resolution 894 (1994) of 14 January.

The Secretary-General invites all Member States to contribute generously to the Fund.
