INFORMATION CIRCULAR

To: Members of the staff at Headquarters

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: AFTER-SCHOOL RECREATION AND STUDY PROGRAMME FOR

UNITED NATIONS CHILDREN*

- 1. The After-School Recreation and Study Programme is open to 5- to 11-year-old children whose parents work at the United Nations. Conducted under the auspices of an independent Board of Trustees, the Programme offers arts and crafts, athletic activities, dance and creative movement, games and homework under the supervision of qualified staff.
- 2. Begun over 25 years ago to assist working parents who were not in a position to provide after-school care for their young children, the Programme enjoys limited subsidies which make it possible to open it up to parents at the cost of $500 per child per semester. This fee represents only a part of the actual cost per child incurred by the Programme. Special family concumstances will be taken into consideration for those families with a net joint income below $30,000. Depending upon the demand, further criteria may be established by the Board of Trustees.
- 3. The autumn 1995 semester will run from Monday through Friday, beginning Monday, 11 September 1995, from 3.15 p.m. to 6.15 p.m. Although transportation will be provided from the United Nations International School building at 25th Street to the DC-2 building, 45th Street entrance (330 East 45th Street), other arrangements will have to be made for children coming from other schools.
- 4. Interested parents are invited to complete the attached application form and return it no later than 18 August 1995 to room DC2-839.

^{*} Personnel Manual index No. 13000.

- 5. Staff members are encouraged to enrol their children between the ages of 5 and 11 years in the Programme, in accordance with information circular ST/IC/86/21 of 2 April 1986. If parents do not wish to do so, then they must make other arrangements to have their children cared for and supervised. The Secretariat building, DC-1 and DC-2 buildings do not have space for children to be present outside this Programme.
- 6. For further information, please call extension 3.8730.
