9. Paragraph 7

Replace paragraph 7 by the two following paragraphs

We stress the need for the promotion of democracy within and among nations and, in particular, the democratization of the United Nations, through its reform and restructuring, in order to allow the fullest participation and engagement of all its members in the fulfilment of its common endeavours, as well as to ensure participation, equitable representation and an appropriate balance between the United Nations organs, in accordance with the Charter. We call for the revitalization of the General Assembly as the only principal organ of the United Nations in which all member States are represented.

The reform and expansion aspects of the Security Council should be considered as integral parts of a common package, taking into account the principles of sovereign equality of States and equitable geographical distribution, as well as the need for transparency, accountability and democratization in the working methods and procedures of the Security Council including the decision-making process and procedures of this organ. The proposed enlargement of the Security Council should be comprehensive in nature, so as to enhance its credibility and to reflect the universal character of the universal body.

10. Paragraph 8

Replace paragraph 8 by the following

The closing years of the first half-century of the United Nations have seen a significant expansion of the role of the Organization in the maintenance of international peace and security. We are convinced that this requires a thorough review so as to avoid any detrimental effect on resources geared to developmental and other activities of the United Nations.
