by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Security Council,

Whereas the Security Council has adopted a recommendation¹⁰ on this matter,

The General Assembly

Determines, in pursuance of Article 93, paragraph 2, of the Charter and upon the recommendation of the Security Council, the conditions on which San Marino may become a party to the Statute of the International Court of Justice, as follows:

“San Marino will become a party to the Statute on the date of the deposit with the Secretary-General of the United Nations of an instrument, signed on behalf of the Government of the Republic of San Marino and ratified as may be required by the constitutional law of San Marino, containing:

“(a) Acceptance of the provisions of the Statute of the International Court of Justice;

“(b) Acceptance of all the obligations of a Member of the United Nations under Article 94 of the Charter;

“(c) An undertaking to contribute to the expenses of the Court such equitable amount as the General Assembly shall assess from time to time after consultation with the Government of San Marino.”
