

the framework of the United Nations in the field of commodity problems, to transmit to the Commission on International Commodity Trade, to the Interim Co-ordinating Committee for International Commodity Arrangements, and to the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations the records of the discussions on international commodity problems held during the twenty-second session of the Council under item 6 of its agenda;<sup>25</sup>

5. Further requests the Secretary-General to obtain from the aforementioned bodies the views which they might wish to express, in the light of the discussion referred to above and in the light of their experience in pursuing their work, on any defects in the present organizational and procedural arrangements governing their activities in the field of international commodity problems and on co-ordination of their functions within the framework of the United Nations, and such specific suggestions on the elimination of those defects as they may be able to make;

6. Further requests the Secretary-General to submit these views to the Council at its twenty-fourth session;

7. Requests the Commission on International Commodity Trade, in carrying out its work, to take into account the importance of the economic development of the under-developed countries, bearing in mind the relationship between the acceleration of the process of industrialization in these countries and the state of the world markets for primary commodities.

621 (XXII). Establishment of a world food reserve

The Economic and Social Council,

Having considered the report on the Functions of a World Food Reserve—Scope and Limitations<sup>26</sup> prepared by the secretariat of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations pursuant to General Assembly resolution 827 (IX) of 14 December 1954,

Affirming the desirability of achieving the objectives set forth in General Assembly resolution 827 (IX),

Commending the secretariat of the Food and Agriculture Organization for the useful review and analysis,

1. Notes that it is not practicable to achieve under a single organization all the objectives set forth in General Assembly resolution 827 (IX);

2. Concludes :

(a) That the basic solution for the problems to which the General Assembly resolution is addressed lies in rapid and balanced economic development;

(b) That under appropriate circumstances food surpluses can usefully contribute to this development when account is taken of the principles established by the Food and Agriculture Organization for the disposal of agricultural surpluses;

(c) That the use of food surpluses or reserves for economic development or price stabilization purposes, which is an aspect of more general problems already under consideration in the United Nations family, should be examined as part of those problems with increased emphasis on the role of food surpluses or reserves in assisting less developed countries to resist strains placed on their foreign exchange positions by unforeseeable food shortages;

3. Stresses the need for progress towards the attainment of the objectives of the General Assembly resolution through continued and intensified international co-operation and national programmes;

4. Requests the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Food and Agriculture Organization and such other organizations and experts as he considers appropriate, to report on the possibility of further national action and international co-operation with a view to attaining the objectives set forth in the General Assembly resolution, including the feasibility, and, if feasible, the manner of using food reserves for meeting unforeseeable food shortages, taking into consideration the various suggestions made at the twenty-second session of the Council and those which may be made at the forthcoming eleventh session of the General Assembly, and to transmit his report to the Council at its twenty-fourth session;

5. Decides to consider this report at its twenty-fourth session and to transmit it and the Food and Agriculture Organization's report together with its own recommendations to the General Assembly at its twelfth session.

6 August 1956.*

622 (XXII). Report of the Statistical Commission (ninth session)

The Economic and Social Council,

Recognizing the increasing importance of assisting the Governments of States Members of the United Nations in the development and improvement of their statistical services, in order to assure a better planning and implementation of enquiries and to accelerate the compilation of data,

Aware of need for more adequate and more systematic arrangements for providing advisory statistical services to countries requesting such services,

Taking note of the report of the Statistical Commission on its ninth session<sup>27</sup> and of the recommendations which are included in it, in particular in resolution I (IX),
