

requests for statistical and other data relating to the international flow of private and public capital and for pertinent information regarding actions and measures being taken to advance the economic development of less developed countries;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to present to the Council the data and related information he assembles, in accordance with paragraphs 1 and 2 above, in a form which will facilitate the study and analysis of total capital movements, particularly in regard to the less developed countries.

*1132nd plenary meeting,
3 August 1960.*

781 (XXX). Information on technical and pre-investment assistance

The Economic and Social Council,

Recognizing the importance of having readily available a full and up-to-date record of specific technical and pre-investment assistance relating to the economic and social development of the less developed countries,

Requests the Secretary-General, in consultation with appropriate specialized agencies and inter-governmental and non-governmental organizations, to report to a future session of the Council on the possibility of establishing such a record in a form which will make it readily accessible.

*1132nd plenary meeting,
3 August 1960.*

782 (XXX). Meetings at the ministerial level

The Economic and Social Council,

Considering that the functions of the Council, as laid down by the Charter, call for systematic and continuous consideration of the major problems of economic and social policy,

Considering its responsibility for contributing to the promotion of higher living standards and more advanced economic and social conditions throughout the world, and also its responsibility to further development of the world economy,

Considering that the attainment of those objectives makes it necessary to recognize the interdependence of the world economy and the need for broader economic co-operation between Governments,

Considering that the meetings at the ministerial level held during the thirtieth session have provided a useful opportunity for the interchange of ideas on the most important problems of co-operation and economic policy,

1. Reiterates the basic priority which it assigns to the economic and social development of the under-developed countries;

2. Recognizes that meetings at the ministerial level from time to time, under appropriate conditions and circumstances, may contribute to the advancement of the objectives of the Council;

3. Invites Governments of States members of the Council, taking into account the proceedings of the thirtieth session of the Council at the ministerial level, to consider and communicate to the Secretary-General, not later than 31 March 1961, their views regarding the conditions and circumstances under which it might be useful for the Council, to provide for a further meeting at the ministerial level;

4. Requests the Secretary-General, on the basis of the views expressed by such Governments and of any other consultations he may wish to undertake, to report to the Council not later than the thirty-second session his findings and recommendations;

5. Expresses the hope that the regional economic commissions and their executive secretaries will make an appropriate contribution to any such meeting.

*1132nd plenary meeting,
3 August 1960.*

783 (XXX). International commodity problems

The Economic and Social Council,

Considering the importance of primary commodities for the economies of developing countries and, especially, of nations achieving independence,

Recognizing the need to follow up its previous action to promote the study of measures to limit fluctuations on primary commodity markets and to remedy the harmful effects of such fluctuations,

I

1. Takes note with satisfaction of the report of the Commission on International Commodity Trade (eighth session)<sup>23</sup> and endorses the programme of work proposed therein;

2. Takes note also, with satisfaction, of the 1960 Review of the Interim Co-ordinating Committee for International Commodity Arrangements;<sup>24</sup>

3. Invites States Members of the United Nations and members of the specialized agencies not represented on the Commission but having experience of stabilization measures, to designate observers to participate in future sessions of the Commission, in accordance with the suggestion made by the Commission in its report on its eighth session;

4. Draws the attention of the Commission to the work on commodities done by the regional economic commissions and by the Contracting Parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, and invites it to take that work into consideration in the studies it is carrying out on a world-wide scale;
