

by the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the Executive Secretary of the Economic Commission for Latin America, the heads of the specialized agencies, the United Nations Children's Fund, the Organization of American States and other inter-governmental and non-governmental organizations, and private persons and foundations, and expresses the hope that such assistance will be increased;

3. Notes that an emergency programme of technical assistance for reconstruction and economic development in Chile has been prepared by the Government of Chile calling for a total amount of U.S. $2.2 million for the period of 1960-1962;⁸⁰

4. Requests the Secretary-General and the heads of the specialized agencies to bear in mind the urgent needs of Chile when deciding, within the scope of their resources and powers, the services to be extended to Member States;

5. Requests the Managing Director of the Special Fund to consider sympathetically any pre-investment project which is presented by Chile in connexion with the work of reconstruction and which is capable of being handled by the Fund;

6. Recommends that the Technical Assistance Committee, the Technical Assistance Board, and the Executive Chairman of the Board, take account of the special needs of Chile for technical assistance in 1960-1962, as noted in paragraph 3 above, and do what is possible to meet them, without prejudice to the general level of the programmes envisaged for other countries during those years;

7. Expresses the hope that the Governments of countries participating in the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance will take account of the special needs of Chile, as well as other exceptional needs and the normal requirements of the Programme, by making additional contributions to the Special Account, in so far as existing resources are not sufficient to satisfy these needs.

767 (XXX). International co-operation in the field of seismological research

The Economic and Social Council,

Reaffirming its concern as shown in its resolutions 254 (IX) of 13 August 1949, 746 (XXIX) of 6 April 1960, and 766 (XXX) of 6 July 1960 at the great loss of human life and extensive material damage caused by earthquakes and seismic sea waves,

Mindful of adverse effects of disasters of this kind upon the economic and social life of the population concerned, ⁸⁰ E/CN.12/AC.46/2, annex 1.

Believing that progress of seismological research and its systematic applications including adequate use of national and international services of warnings of earthquakes and seismic sea waves can reduce the damage thus caused,

Convinced, also, that there is an urgent need of further promoting international co-operation in order to provide the population of the world with sufficient safeguards against disasters of this nature,

Expressing the hope that, with a view to meeting this need, scientific studies and operational activities on seismological and other related aspects of the problem will be accelerated by the United Nations and the specialized agencies and other international organizations concerned.

1. Requests the Secretary-General to seek the co-operation of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the World Meteorological Organization and other specialized agencies concerned in undertaking a detailed and comprehensive study of the ways and means of reducing to a minimum the damage resulting from earthquakes and seismic sea waves, including the development and co-ordination of seismological observation and research, and of systems of warning of seismic sea waves, the establishment of seismological maps and the improvement of physical planning and of housing and building techniques in areas particularly liable to such disturbances, and to report to the Council at its thirty-fourth session;

2. Invites the Secretary-General and the interested specialized agencies to furnish assistance for this purpose to Governments, which so request, to the full extent that their resources permit.
