752 (XXIX). Study of opportunities for international co-operation on behalf of former Trust Territories and other newly independent States

The Economic and Social Council,

Having considered General Assembly resolution 1414 (XIV) of 5 December 1959 calling for a study of opportunities for international co-operation on behalf of the former Trust Territories which have become independent, together with Assembly resolution 1415 (XIV) of 5 December 1959 regarding assistance to territories emerging from a trust status and to newly independent States,

Recognizing that there is an urgent need for international assistance to strengthen the newly found independence of these countries by sound economic growth and social progress,

Noting the desire of the Economic Commission for Africa, as expressed in its resolution 10 (II) of 5 February 1960, to co-operate with the Secretary-General and the Economic and Social Council in this matter, in view of its terms of reference and of the advantages inherent in the fact that it is situated in the African continent,

Having considered the memorandum of the Secretary-General concerning opportunities for international co-operation on behalf of former Trust Territories and other newly independent States,⁴

1. Takes note with appreciation of the Secretary-General's observations, which form a valuable basis for further consideration of the problem;⁵

⁴ Official Records of the Economic and Social Council, Twenty-ninth Session, Annexes, agenda item 10, document E/3338.

2. Believes that special efforts need to be made in support of the newly emerging States of Africa and elsewhere to provide without delay effective assistance within the framework of existing programmes of the United Nations and through the specialized agencies;

3. Expresses the hope, in accordance with General Assembly resolutions 1382 (XIV), paragraph 5, and 1383 A (XIV), paragraph 5 (b), of 20 November 1959, that additional funds will be made available to the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance and the Special Fund in 1961 and following years to permit a substantial increase in the activities of these programmes in Africa, at the request of former Trust Territories and other newly independent States, while fully maintaining, or increasing, assistance given to other regions under these programmes;

4. Requests the Secretary-General, bearing in mind existing bilateral and multilateral aid programmes, to present to the Council at its thirtieth session a report based on a further and more specific examination of the opportunities for international co-operation on behalf of former Trust Territories and other newly independent States, including opportunities offered:

(a) Under the regular assistance programmes, specifically those established by General Assembly resolutions 200 (III) of 4 December 1948 concerning technical assistance for economic development, 723 (VIII) of 23 October 1953 concerning technical assistance in public administration and 1256 (XIII) of 14 November 1958 concerning operational, executive and administrative personnel, and having regard to the possible need for the provision of additional funds in the United Nations regular budget for these purposes;

(b) Under General Assembly resolution 418 (V) of 1 December 1950 regarding advisory social welfare services;

5. Further requests the Secretary-General, in preparing the above-mentioned report, to consult the Governments of countries which were formerly under trusteeship and which have become independent, as suggested in General Assembly resolution 1414 (XIV), the executive heads of the specialized agencies as contemplated under Assembly resolution 1415 (XIV) and as he has indicated at the twenty-ninth session of the Council, and, as appropriate, such other international governmental and non-governmental organizations as may be competent to make a contribution to the study;

6. Decides to consider the report of the Secretary-General at its thirtieth session with a view to further action and the submission of its report to the General Assembly at its fifteenth session.
