

signed at Geneva on 19 September 1949, should be extended for three years, and its resolution 645 E (XXIII) of 26 April 1957 on the recognition of national driving licences,

1. Recommends the States Parties to the 1949 Convention on Road Traffic which do not fully apply resolution 645 E (XXIII) to extend again — for two years and for the last time — the transitional period referred to in article 24, paragraph 6, of the said 1949 Convention and, accordingly, until 26 March 1962 to consider as fulfilling the requirements of the said article 24 any driver admitted to international traffic under the provisions of the International Convention relating to Motor Traffic signed at Paris on 24 April 1926, or of the Convention on the Regulation of Inter-American Automotive Traffic opened for signature at Washington on 15 December 1943, and holding the documents required thereunder;

2. Recommends the States Parties to the International Convention relating to Motor Traffic of 24 April 1926 or to the Convention on the Regulation of Inter-American Automotive Traffic of 15 December 1943 which are not yet parties to the 1949 Convention on Road Traffic to recognize, as from a date not later than 26 March 1962, international driving permits conforming to the model in annex 10 to the 1949 Convention;

3. Recommends the States Parties to the 1949 Convention on Road Traffic to recognize, as from a date not later than 26 March 1962, the international driving permits conforming to the model in annex 10 to the said Convention which may be issued by States not parties to the Convention;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit the above recommendations to the Governments of the States referred to in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3, with the request that they communicate by 1 January 1961 their intentions regarding the implementation in their countries of those parts of these recommendations which concern them.

752 (XXIX), of 14 April 1960, and resolution 10 (II) of 5 February 1960, of the Economic Commission for Africa,<sup>8</sup>

Having considered the report by the Secretary-General entitled "Opportunities for International Co-operation on Behalf of Newly Independent Countries",<sup>9</sup>

Taking into account the oral statement<sup>10</sup> made to it by the representative of the Secretary-General about the new and urgent needs which have arisen in recent weeks,

Believing that the emergence of newly independent States, in Africa and elsewhere, calls urgently for additional international assistance of all kinds to help them in their endeavours to reap the benefits and assume the responsibilities of independence and to attain rapid economic and social advancement in conditions of stability,

Recognizing the importance of ensuring that such countries should have access to advice concerning their requests for assistance from the United Nations and the specialized agencies on the basis of balanced assessment of priority needs, and noting the contribution which resident representatives of the Technical Assistance Board and the secretariat of the Economic Commission for Africa can make to this end,

1. Commends the Secretary-General for his reports and endorses the objectives and principles contained therein;

2. Believes that special efforts must be made to provide, within the existing framework of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, prompt and effective assistance to newly emerging countries making appropriate use in this connexion of existing resident representatives and of those who may be appointed in the future;

3. Stresses the need for providing speedily and on an adequate scale operational, executive and administrative personnel where requested;

4. Requests the Secretary-General and the Executive Chairman of the Technical Assistance Board to prepare, so far as possible, detailed programmes for consideration, respectively, by the General Assembly at its fifteenth session, and by the Technical Assistance Committee at its November 1960 session for meeting the additional needs of newly independent and emerging States, without prejudice to assistance to other countries;

5. Recommends that the General Assembly make appropriate provision for these purposes in the budget of the United Nations;

6. Urges that every effort be made to secure increased contributions to the United Nations Special Fund and the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance.
