INFORMATION CIRCULAR

To: Members of the staff

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: 1996 COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR SPANISH EDITORS

- 1. A competitive examination for the recruitment of Spanish editors will be held on 21 and 22 August 1996 in New York, Geneva and other duty stations according to the number and location of qualified candidates convoked for the examination. The purpose of this examination is to establish a roster from which present and future vacancies for Spanish editors at United Nations Headquarters in New York and at other duty stations in Africa, Asia, Europe and Latin America will be filled. Staff members who are successful in this examination and are selected for inclusion in the roster will be assigned to fill vacancies as they occur, on the recommendation of the Office of Conference and Support Services of the United Nations Secretariat. Assignments are subject to rotation and Spanish editors may thereafter be called upon to serve at other duty stations according to the needs of the Organization. Editors are expected to serve a MINIMUM OF FIVE YEARS in a language post.
- 2. The examination is open to staff members of the United Nations at the P-3 level and below who meet the eligibility requirements, as well as to qualified external applicants. Staff members from subsidiary organs of the United Nations as well as staff members whose service is limited to a particular organ, fund or programme of the United Nations or to special missions are considered external candidates for the purpose of this examination. The assignment of staff members of the United Nations who are successful in the examination and are selected to fill vacancies will be subject to the conditions set out in paragraphs 10 and 11 below.
- 3. Staff members of the Secretariat applying for the examination must:
  - (a) Have Spanish as their main language; 1/

- (b) Have a perfect command of Spanish and a very good knowledge of English and one of the other four official languages of the United Nations (Arabic, Chinese, French and Russian). The Board of Examiners, appointed by the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management, requires that candidates' claims to knowledge of official languages must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files. Staff members who have been enrolled in a United Nations language course in any of the languages claimed must have passed the United Nations language proficiency examination in that language. Candidates who have not attended the United Nations language courses in the languages claimed must substantiate their claims to knowledge of those languages by attaching to their application a photocopy of a diploma or a certificate from a language school or a brief explanation of how they acquired their knowledge of the languages claimed. Staff members are advised to submit photocopies, not originals, of such documentation;
- (c) Hold a degree or an equivalent qualification from a university or institution of equivalent status at which Spanish is the principal language of instruction;
- (d) Have relevant experience in the field of publishing or perform functions involving thorough knowledge of United Nations documentation or publications;
  - (e) Have computer and word-processing skills.
- 4. The requirement for a university degree or its equivalent mentioned in paragraph 3 (c) may be waived for staff members who, in the judgement of the Board of Examiners, have appropriate post-secondary educational qualifications from a university or institution of equivalent status at which the principal language of instruction is Spanish, in addition to five years of continuous service with the United Nations Secretariat by 31 December 1989.
- 5. All applications will be reviewed by the Board of Examiners. All applicants will be notified of the Board's decision in respect of their application. THE BOARD'S DECISIONS ARE FINAL.
- 6. The written examination will consist of the following five parts:
  - I. Revision of a text in Spanish for grammatical correctness, clarity and consistency (three hours);
  - II. Editing of a Spanish text following an edited English text (two hours);
  - III. Editing of a Spanish text following an edited text in a language chosen by the candidate from a total of four texts in Arabic, Chinese, French or Russian (two hours);
  - IV. Summary of a Spanish text for brevity and clarity while covering all essential points (two hours);

- V. (Optional) Editing of a Spanish text following an edited text, chosen by the candidate from a total of four texts in Arabic, Chinese, French or Russian, in a language other than the one chosen for paper III (two hours).
- 7. The use of a dictionary or any other reference material is NOT permitted during the examination.
- 8. On the basis of the results obtained in the written examination, the Board of Examiners will invite selected candidates to the second component, a word-processing skills test (two hours) and an interview, which will normally take place 10 to 12 weeks after the written component of the examination. The Board will interview each candidate to assess professional experience, general interests, knowledge of the United Nations, willingness to serve at any duty station and, in particular, ability to work as a member of a team. The second component is an integral part of the examination. Therefore, candidates who are invited to the second component should NOT assume that they will be offered an assignment as a Spanish editor.
- 9. On the basis of the overall results of the examination, the Board will recommend to the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management the names of candidates for inclusion in the roster. All candidates admitted to the second component of the examination will be informed in writing of the Board's final recommendation in respect of their candidature. The Board's recommendations are NOT subject to appeal. The Board does NOT release individual results.
- 10. Staff members selected to fill vacancies will be assigned as Spanish editors for a trial period of two years. Staff members at the P-1 level or below will receive a special post allowance to the P-2 level. Staff members at the P-2 and P-3 levels will be assigned at their respective levels.
- 11. Staff members with a special post allowance to the P-2 level and those already at the P-2 level who complete the trial period successfully and are recommended by the department to which they are assigned and the Office of Human Resources Management may be promoted to the P-3 level. Staff members already at the P-3 level who complete the trial period successfully will be confirmed in their editing functions at the P-3 level. Staff members who do not complete the trial period successfully will be reassigned to posts at their previous levels and the special post allowance, if any, will be discontinued.
- 12. Staff members applying for the examination should complete the attached form and submit it, NOT LATER THAN 1 July 1996, to:

1996 Competitive Examination for Spanish Editors Examinations and Tests Section Specialist Services Division Room S-2590D United Nations Secretariat New York, NY 10017

- 13. In order to ensure that applications submitted by staff members from offices away from Headquarters are received in time, these staff members are requested to return the attached form to the Specialist Services Division through the chief administrative officer or director of the United Nations information centre of their respective duty stations by 1 July 1996, the deadline for receipt of applications in the Specialist Services Division, OHRM.
- 14. Staff members may obtain copies of model examination papers from the Examinations and Tests Section, room S-2575A, United Nations Secretariat, New York, NY 10017. Staff members working at the United Nations Office at Geneva may obtain copies of model examination papers from the Training and Examinations Section, room 4, Le Bocage.

Notes

 $\underline{1}/$  Main language should be understood to be the language in which the candidate is best able to edit. Candidates' claim to Spanish as their main language must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files.
