870 (XXXIII). Nature, scope and location of the conference on international travel and tourism

The Economic and Social Council,

Bearing in mind the importance of international travel in promoting international understanding and cultural relationships, fostering international trade and furthering economic development, particularly in the developing countries,

Recognizing that in order to encourage the development of international travel it is desirable, wherever possible, to reduce travel formalities and also to standardize such formalities as are deemed necessary,

Considering Article 62, paragraph 4, of the Charter of the United Nations, which provides that the Council may call, in accordance with the rules prescribed by the United Nations, international conferences on matters falling within its competence,

Considering further the rules for the calling of international conferences of States contained in General Assembly resolution 366 (IV) of 3 December 1949,

Having considered the recommendations set forth in the note by the Secretary-General<sup>8</sup> transmitting to the Council the report of the Group of Experts on International Travel and Tourism with whom he consulted in compliance with Council resolution 813 (XXXI) of 27 April 1961,
