⁷⁶ Annual Report by the International Atomic Energy Agency to the Economic and Social Council for 1961-1962 and Corrigendum.

Noting resolution 1717 (XVI) of 19 December 1961 of the General Assembly which, having considered the plan for African educational development,⁷⁷ invited States Members of the United Nations and members of the specialized agencies to contribute financial and technical assistance to African countries to meet the deficits calculated in the Addis Ababa plan for the years 1961 to 1965,

Having received the report of the meeting of ministers of education of African countries participating in the execution of the Addis Ababa plan⁷⁸ organized by the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization in co-operation with the Economic Commission for Africa from 26 to 30 March 1962,

Noting with satisfaction the commendable efforts of the ministers of education of the African countries to ensure the implementation of the co-ordinated programme of educational development established for 1962-1963,

Noting with appreciation the comments and decisions of the Executive Board of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization on the above-mentioned report,⁷⁸

1. Expresses the hope that African countries will take appropriate action to continue to render possible the implementation of the co-ordinated programme;

2. Invites the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, in co-operation with the Economic Commission for Africa and the other organs of the United Nations; including the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Special Fund, the United Nations Children's Fund, and the International Development Association, to continue and expand their aid to the African countries, on the basis of their requests and in accordance with the co-ordinated priority programme for the years 1962-1963, established by the meeting;

3. Calls the attention of the General Assembly:

(a) To the additional financial needs of the thirty-three countries to meet their deficits under the Addis Ababa plan for the years 1962-1963;

(b) To the decision to establish the permanent conference of ministers of education, with the assistance of the secretariats of the United Nations Educational,
