

trends as may be helpful in providing a meaningful interpretation of their activities;

(d) To include in the provisional agenda of the eighteenth session of the General Assembly, under the item relating to industrial development, a sub-item on the consideration of the industrial development activities of the United Nations system and to transmit to this session the information requested in sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) above, together with such comments as he may deem appropriate;

(e) To transmit to the Committee for Industrial Development, for consideration at its fourth session, the information and comments requested in sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) above, together with a summary of the General Assembly's discussion of this item and of any decision thereon.

*1296th plenary meeting,
25 July 1963.*

978 (XXXVI). Proposals for a priority programme of co-ordinated action in the field of water resources

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolutions 876 (XXXIII) of 17 April 1962 and 916 (XXXIV) of 3 August 1962,

Reaffirming the fundamental importance of water resources development to economic development and the contribution it can make during the United Nations Development Decade and beyond,

1. Notes with appreciation the report<sup>34</sup> of the United Nations Water Resources Development Centre prepared in response to the above-mentioned resolution 876 (XXXIII) and the preliminary proposals for priority action contained therein, outlining as initial steps towards more substantial development adequate to meet growing needs,

(a) Preliminary country surveys of water needs and resources;

(b) Preliminary surveys of international river basins of interest to developing countries;

(c) Large-scale pre-development investigations of ground-water basins;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to study these proposals further, in collaboration with the specialized agencies concerned and the International Atomic Energy Agency through the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination and to submit his recommendations to the 1964 session of the Council;

3. Invites, in the meanwhile, the Secretary-General by appropriate action at Headquarters and in the regional economic commissions, in line with its resolution 955 (XXXVI) of 5 July 1963 on the decentralization of economic and social activities of the United Nations, as well as invites the executive heads of the specialized agencies concerned and of the International Atomic Energy Agency, in co-ordination with the United Nations Water Resources Development Centre, to continue to make available such facilities as appropriate for the implementation of projects in the field of water resources development, including those for the training of local technical personnel, in response to Government requests;

<sup>34</sup> Ibid., Annexes, agenda item 6, document E/3760.

4. Draws the attention of Governments of Member States of the United Nations to these preliminary proposals for action and for this purpose recommends that due consideration be given to the importance of more adequate water resources development in the submission of Special Fund and technical assistance requests, with such assistance being sought as appropriate from the United Nations Water Resources Development Centre, regional and other bodies;

5. Requests the Centre to furnish information to the Council, in its biennial reports, on the progress achieved.

*1302nd plenary meeting,
1 August 1963.*

981 (XXXVI). Financing of economic development

The Economic and Social Council

Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General on the international flow of long-term capital and official donations, 1959-1961.<sup>35</sup>

*1302nd plenary meeting,
1 August 1963.*

971 (XXXVI). World Food Programme

The Economic and Social Council,

Having considered the first report of the United Nations/FAO Inter-Governmental Committee of the World Food Programme,<sup>36</sup>

A

Noting that the experimental programme has proved effective in providing food-aid in seven emergency situations in the past ten months and that four projects applying food assistance to stimulate economic and social development have already been started and four more approved,

Noting with approval the arrangements made by the Programme for co-ordination and co-operation within the United Nations system including maximum use of existing staff and facilities of the United Nations, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and other specialized agencies,

<sup>35</sup> A/5195/Rev.1.

<sup>36</sup> Official Records of the Economic and Social Council, Thirty-sixth Session, Annexes, agenda item 10, document E/3791, (UN/FAO Intergovernmental Committee, document IGC/3/63/REP.1 of 31 May 1963).