985 (XXXVI). United Nations training and research institute

The Economic and Social Council,

Bearing in mind the provisions of General Assembly resolution 1827 (XVII) of 18 December 1962 concerning a United Nations training and research institute,

Having considered the note¹¹⁵ prepared by the Secretary-General pursuant thereto,

Noting that the Secretary-General has given his strong support to the proposal for the establishment of a United Nations institute and has stated that it should be able to make a contribution of great value to the United Nations,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General for the observations and recommendations in his note;

2. Endorses the broad lines of the Secretary-General's plan for the United Nations training and research institute;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to explore possible sources, both governmental and non-governmental, of financial assistance to the institute;

4. Recommends that the General Assembly adopt the following resolution:

" The General Assembly,

" Bearing in mind the purpose and principles of the United Nations, as set forth in Article I of the Charter,

" Noting in particular the close interrelationship between economic and social development and the achievement of peace and security and the dependence of both of these on international co-operation,

" Reaffirming its belief that the provision and training of personnel of the highest calibre from the developing Member States for national service and service with the United Nations and the specialized agencies are important in order to fulfil the objectives of the United Nations Development Decade,

" Recalling its resolution 1827 (XVII) of 18 December 1962 which requested the Secretary-General ' to study the desirability and feasibility of establishing a United Nations institute for a training programme under the auspices of the United Nations, to be financed by voluntary contributions both public and private ',

" Having considered the note prepared by the Secretary-General pursuant thereto,

" Noting that the Economic and Social Council has endorsed the broad lines of the Secretary-General's plan for the United Nations training and research institute,

" 1. Expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General for the observations and recommendations in his note concerning the institute;

" 2. Requests the Secretary-General to proceed with plans for the institute along the lines set forth in his note, taking due account of suggestions regarding the frame of reference of the institute, as stated in operative paragraph 3 of General Assembly resolution 1827 (XVII);

" 3. Further requests the Secretary-General to submit a progress report to the Economic and Social Council at its thirty-seventh session and to the General Assembly at its nineteenth regular session."

986 (XXXVI). Co-ordination of atomic energy activities

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolution 799 B III (XXX) of 3 August 1960,

Noting with appreciation the progress which has been achieved in the field of co-ordination of atomic energy activities between the International Atomic Energy Agency and the specialized agencies and the work of the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination in this respect,

Recalling that the agreement between the United Nations and the International Atomic Energy Agency recognizes that the International Atomic Energy Agency is " the agency, under the aegis of the United Nations . . . , responsible for international activities concerned with the peaceful uses of atomic energy ",

Noting in addition that one of the functions of the Agency under its Statute " is to establish or adopt, in consultation and where appropriate in collaboration with the competent organs of the United Nations and with the specialized agencies concerned, standards of safety for protection of health and the minimization of danger to life and property (including such standards for labour conditions) ",

Having regard to the relationship agreements and working arrangements already established between the International Atomic Energy Agency and the specialized agencies, which provide inter alia " that with a view to facilitating the effective attainment of the objectives set
