

6. Transmits the Final Act and the report of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development to the General Assembly at its nineteenth session for further action.

*1331st plenary meeting,
24 July 1964.*

1035 (XXXVII). Economic planning and projections

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 1708 (XVI) of 19 December 1961 and 1939 (XVIII) of 11 December 1963 and Council resolution 979 (XXXVI) of 1 August 1963,

Taking into account particularly the views expressed in General Assembly resolution 1939 (XVIII) as to the importance for rapid economic and social development of economic planning adapted to the specific conditions and needs of each developing country,

Taking into account further the measures approved by that resolution for intensifying progress by the regional economic commissions, the Economic Projections and Programming Centre, regional planning institutes and other United Nations bodies concerned in making available for the guidance of the developing countries the knowledge and experience which may best help them in making and carrying out programmes and plans (especially long-term plans) of development,

1. Takes note with appreciation of the Report of the Group of Experts on Planning for Economic Development; ¹²

2. Looks forward to the publication of the complete report prepared by the Economic Projections and Programming Centre, including the studies by consultants submitted to the Committee of Experts on long-term economic projections;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to consider in due course as the work of United Nations bodies on planning and projections progresses the possible usefulness of establishing a group of experts-specialists in planning theory and practice that would work as a consultative body on the problems of economic planning and projections within the United Nations.

*1351st plenary meeting,
15 August 1964.*

1026 (XXXVII). Economic and social consequences of disarmament

Conversion to peaceful needs of the resources released by disarmament

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 1378 (XIV) of 20 November 1959, 1516 (XV) of 15 December 1960, 1837 (XVII) of 18 December 1962, 1931 (XVIII) of 11 December 1963 and Council resolutions 891 (XXXIV) of 26 July 1962, and 982 (XXXVI) of 2 August 1963,

¹² United Nations publication, Sales No. 64.II.B.3.

Fully sharing the hope expressed by the General Assembly and by the recent United Nations Conference on Trade and Development that the Governments of all States will intensify efforts to achieve an agreement on general and complete disarmament under effective international control,

Having considered the work already accomplished and now going forward, both nationally and internationally, bearing on the economic and social consequences of disarmament,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General for his informative report; ¹³

2. Further expresses its appreciation for the co-operation of Governments, particularly of those significantly involved, in responding to the Secretary-General's request for pertinent information; ¹⁴

3. Deems it necessary that the activities within the framework of the United Nations, including those of the regional economic commissions and of the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency, relating to the economic and social consequences of disarmament as called for by resolutions of the General Assembly, the Council and the governing bodies of the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency, be continued and accelerated as far as possible;

4. Welcomes in this connexion the recent agreement by the Secretary-General and the Directors General of the specialized agencies and of the International Atomic Energy Agency in respect of all studies of the economic and social aspects of disarmament and that the agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency will co-operate with the Secretary-General in the preparation of concerted programmes of work, and for this purpose will establish a committee of agency representatives;

5. Recognizes that at a later time establishment of a new ad hoc group, such as that envisaged in General Assembly resolution 1931 (XVIII), may be advantageous;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the Council at its thirty-ninth session a further progress report on the question of the economic and social consequences of disarmament.

*1345th plenary meeting,
11 August 1964.*
