

Considering that the planning and development institutes established under the United Nations assist Governments of Member States, in particular those of the developing countries, in the preparation of their development plans,

1. Notes with satisfaction the initial steps already taken to establish close inter-relationships among the various world-wide and regional planning institutes;

2. Stresses the importance of establishing close working relationships between the various regional planning institutes of the United Nations and specialized agencies and national planning organizations for their mutual benefit;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to prepare, for the thirty-ninth session of the Council, a paper containing a clear and concise description of the terms of reference and of the spheres of activities of the various institutes established or to be established in the near future by the United Nations or related agencies, including a commentary on those aspects of their respective work which, in his view, might lend themselves to concerted activity or give rise to special problems of co-ordination;

4. Requests the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination to include in its annual report to the Council a section on co-ordination and co-operation between the various institutes concerned with planning and research.

*1351st plenary meeting,
15 August 1964.*

1038 (XXXVII). World campaign against hunger, disease and ignorance

The Economic and Social Council,

Having regard to General Assembly resolution 1943 (XVIII) of 11 December 1963 proposing a five-year campaign in the fields of food, health and education, including training,

Recognizing the great potential value of this proposal to the purposes of the United Nations Development Decade and the important contribution which the non-governmental organizations can make,

Welcoming this proposal for awakening public support for a concerted effort to combat poverty,

Taking account of the positive comments made by a number of Governments of States Members of the United Nations as well as by non-governmental organizations,

1. Takes note with appreciation of the Secretary-General's report¹¹⁶ on the feasibility and methods of stimulating such a campaign;

2. Accepts the view of the Secretary-General that the relationship of the proposed World Campaign and the Freedom from Hunger Campaign requires further clarification;

3. Notes the view of the Secretary-General that a World Campaign would require the active participation of the specialized agencies concerned and the co-ordination and leadership of the United Nations;

¹¹⁶ Official Records of the Economic and Social Council, Thirty-seventh Session, Annexes, agenda item 7, document E/3911.

4. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To bring the views of the Council to the notice of the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination together with the views communicated by the individual Governments and non-governmental organizations with a view to making a further effort to implement General Assembly resolution 1943 (XVIII);

(b) To pursue as a matter of urgency the consultations with Governments, specialized agencies and non-governmental organizations requested by General Assembly resolution 1943 (XVIII) on the feasibility of, and possible plans for, organizing and executing a World Campaign;

(c) To report to the Council at its thirty-ninth session.

*1351st plenary meeting,
15 August 1964.*

1039 (XXXVII). Freedom from Hunger Campaign

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolution 743 C (XXVIII) of 31 July 1959 on a freedom from hunger campaign,

Noting with satisfaction the success so far achieved by the Campaign and the contribution it is making towards the objectives of the United Nations Development Decade by stimulating public and private action in the developed and developing countries towards solving the pressing problems of hunger and malnutrition,

Realizing the magnitude and long-term nature of the task of securing adequate nutrition for all people in all lands,

1. Urges that Governments of Member States of the United Nations, or member states of the specialized agencies, or of the International Atomic Energy Agency, non-governmental organizations, the United Nations and the specialized agencies participating in the Campaign intensify their efforts against hunger in order to promote all appropriate initiatives within the United Nations Development Decade;

2. Invites the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization to continue to keep the Council informed of the progress achieved in developing further the Freedom from Hunger Campaign.

*1351st plenary meeting,
15 August 1964.*

1045 (XXXVII). Centenary of the International Telecommunication Union

The Economic and Social Council,

Noting with keen interest that the International Telecommunication Union, which was founded consequent to the signature of the first International Telegraph Convention at Paris on 17 May 1865, is to celebrate its centenary in 1965, International Co-operation Year, thus providing an example of a century of uninterrupted international co-operation,

Considering that it would be desirable to associate the United Nations, the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency with the celebration of this centenary,

1. Offers its heartiest congratulations to the International Telecommunication Union on the occasion of its centenary;

2. Invites the United Nations, the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency to participate to the fullest possible extent in the celebrations which will mark the centenary of the International Telecommunication Union, and should constitute an important contribution to International Co-operation Year.

*1351st plenary meeting,
15 August 1964.*

1014 (XXXVII). Emergency aid to Costa Rica

The Economic and Social Council,

Considering with concern the disastrous consequences of the eruption of the Irazú volcano which since 20 March 1963 has been continuously pouring over the central plateau of Costa Rica—the most thickly inhabited area and the one with the greatest productive activity—clouds of ash and sand that have altered the course of several rivers and thereby produced floods which have led to considerable loss of life and have caused very serious damage to the agriculture and the cities of Costa Rica, threatening to entail unforeseeable consequences for that country,

1. Deplores the tragic consequences which these unfortunate events are having for the population of Costa Rica;
