

2. Expresses its deep concern about the results connected with the continued activity of the Irazú volcano and accordingly deems it urgent that all possible assistance should be given to that country;

3. Takes note of the aid which it has been possible to give Costa Rica, within the narrow budgetary limitations of the United Nations, through technical assistance, the Special Fund, the World Health Organization, the Food and Agriculture Organization, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and in particular commends the Secretary-General of the United Nations for setting up a voluntary emergency trust fund for that purpose;

4. Invites States Members of the United Nations which have not yet done so to join those which have contributed to that fund or to consider what further assistance they can offer to Costa Rica;

5. Invites also the specialized agencies and the non-governmental organizations to show their solidarity with the people of Costa Rica by contributing to the above-mentioned assistance fund;

6. Recommends that the Technical Assistance Committee, the Technical Assistance Board and the Executive Chairman of the Board should take account of the special needs of Costa Rica when considering their programmes for the biennium 1965-1966 and do as much as possible to meet them, without prejudice to the general level of the programmes envisaged for other countries;

7. Requests the Managing Director and the Governing Council of the Special Fund to give sympathetic consideration to requests which may be submitted by Costa Rica in connexion with the work of reconstruction and which can be adequately handled by the Special Fund.

1049 (XXXVII). Assistance in cases of natural disaster

The Economic and Social Council,

Noting that, as a result of natural disasters that have occurred during recent years in developing countries, the United Nations has received numerous appeals for assistance,

Recalling the various resolutions adopted by the General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council, especially General Assembly resolutions 1882 (XVIII) of 14 October 1963 and 1888 (XVIII) of 1 November 1963 and Council resolutions 930 (XXXV) of 3 April 1963, 970 (XXXVI) of 29 July 1963 and 1014 (XXXVII) of 28 July 1964 calling inter alia on the Secretary-General to provide assistance to the stricken countries,

Recognizing that, while limited resources are available for such assistance to certain specialized agencies and operating programmes, the Secretary-General has no funds at his disposal to offer assistance in case of natural disaster,

Recalling its request, at its thirty-sixth session,¹¹⁹ that the Secretary-General should take the lead in establishing in conjunction with the specialized agencies and the League of Red Cross Societies, appropriate arrangements for assistance in rapid and concerted relief and construction in cases of natural disaster, and noting with approval the arrangements for inter-agency co-ordination in this field set out in the twenty-eighth¹²⁰ and twenty-ninth¹²¹ reports of the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination,

Taking note of the letter to the Secretary-General from the Secretary-General of the League of Red Cross Societies,¹²²

1. Requests the Secretary-General to study in consultation with the international organizations concerned:

(a) The types of assistance which it might be appropriate for the United Nations to provide;

(b) The order of magnitude of the resources that the Secretary-General might require for this purpose;

(c) Alternative methods of providing such resources, including the establishment of a United Nations fund for assistance in cases of natural disaster, financed through voluntary contributions;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to submit his report for consideration by the General Assembly at its nineteenth session;

3. Also requests the Secretary-General to consider possible improvements in the arrangements for co-ordinating international assistance and to report to the Council at its thirty-ninth session.

*1351st plenary meeting,
15 August 1964.*

1028 (XXXVII). Town Twinning : means of international co-operation

The Economic and Social Council,

Considering that experience in recent years has shown the great value of town-twinning practised without any discrimination and especially between States Members of the United Nations,

Considering that many town-twinning arrangements under the auspices of the United Towns Organization and other similar organizations promote the realization of the lofty ideals enshrined in the United Nations Charter, the constitution of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and the resolutions of the great international conferences,

Considering that the first African Conference of World-Wide Inter-community Co-operation, meeting at Dakar on 1, 2 and 3 April 1964 and attended by 148 participants from 41 countries, laid special emphasis on "towntwinning co-operation" as a means of establishing positive mutual assistance between equal partners, permitting vocational and domestic training, the training of key municipal administrative personnel and skilled workers and adapting vocational and domestic training to local needs through appropriate periods of instruction,

Considering that the General Assembly decided in its resolution 1907 (XVIII), dated 21 November 1963, to designate 1965 as International Co-operation Year,

Considering therefore that it is desirable that such a direct form of co-operation as town-twinning should be put into practice,

1. Considers town-twinning as one of the means of co-operation that should be encouraged by the international Organization both in connexion with International Co-operation Year and on a permanent basis;

2. Recommends the United Nations and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization to encourage during 1965, within the limits of their resources, the largest possible number of town-twinning with the collaboration of competent non-governmental organizations;

3. Invites the Council Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations to give all due consideration, as soon as possible and in accordance with established procedures, to the request that the United Towns Organization should be given category A consultative status;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit this resolution to the General Assembly committee responsible for the preparation of International Co-operation Year.

13 August 1964.*

1012 (XXXVII). Teaching of the purposes and principles, the structure and activities of the United Nations and the specialized agencies in schools and other educational institutions of Member States

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 137 (II) of 17 November 1947 and 1511 (XV) of 12 December 1960 which recommended to Member States that measures be taken to encourage the teaching of the purposes and principles, the structure and activities of the United Nations and its related agencies in schools,

Recalling also its previous resolutions on this subject and, in particular, resolution 748 (XXIX) of 6 April 1960,

Having considered the report¹²³ prepared jointly by the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the Director-General of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, in accordance with Council resolution 748 (XXIX),

Noting with satisfaction that progress continues to be made in many Member States in developing facilities for teaching about the United Nations and its related agencies,

1. Believes that special attention should be given in teaching about the United Nations and its related agencies to the contributions being made by them to international peace and understanding and international co-operation and particularly to their achievements in the fields of economic and social development;

2. Expresses its appreciation for the valuable work done by non-governmental organizations in consultative status in helping to disseminate information about the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and expresses the hope that they will continue their efforts in this field;

3. Invites the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the Director-General of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization to give appropriate consideration, within existing programmes and budgets and without detriment to normal programmes, to providing study grants to textbook authors, persons responsible for educational television and radio, and persons responsible for school curriculum development, for the purpose of spending time in the Headquarters of the United Nations or of the specialized agencies to become better informed concerning the achievements and activities of the United Nations, as well as its structure and principles;

4. Requests the Secretary-General, in collaboration with the Director-General of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and the executive heads of other interested specialized agencies to compile a further report on teaching about the United Nations and its related agencies in schools, educational institutions and adult education programmes, on the basis of inquiries to Governments of Member States of the United Nations or members of the specialized agencies, for consideration by the Council in 1970;

5. Emphasizes the importance of further efforts in the field of the production of teaching materials and audio-visual aids and assisting countries in this respect;

6. Requests the Secretary-General and the executive heads of the specialized agencies to give a relevant importance within the existing budgets to the preparation and distribution of materials in as many different languages as possible about the structure, goals and achievements of the United Nations and its specialized agencies;

7. Urges Governments of Member States of the United Nations or members of the specialized agencies to furnish, in response to the inquiries addressed to them, full information in their respective countries, in the public and private sectors as appropriate, particularly as regards teaching about the role of the United Nations and its related agencies in furthering social and economic development for the benefit of mankind during the United Nations Development Decade.
