

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL AT ITS RESUMED THIRTY-NINTH SESSION

1094 (XXXIX). Continuation of the World Food Programme

The Economic and Social Council,

Having considered the recommendations made by the United Nations/FAO Intergovernmental Committee of the World Food Programme at its eighth session and the action taken by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations at its meeting held on 17 November 1965,

Decides to replace by the following text paragraphs 5 and 6 of the draft resolution on the continuation of the World Food Programme which, in its resolution 1080 (XXXIX) of 30 July 1965, it has submitted for the consideration and approval of the General Assembly:

"5. Reaffirms its previous decision to the effect that the United Nations/FAO Intergovernmental Committee of the World Food Programme shall comprise twenty-four States members of the Food and Agriculture Organization or Members of the United Nations, twelve of these members to be elected by the Economic and Social Council and twelve members by the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization, it being understood that outgoing members shall be eligible for re-election:

"6. Requests the Economic and Social Council and the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization as soon as possible after the adoption of this resolution by the General Assembly and the Conference of the Food and Agriculture Organization to elect twelve members each, four members each for a term of one year, four members each for a term of two years, and four members each for a term of three years;

"7. Decides that thereafter all the members of the Intergovernmental Committee shall be elected for a term of three years, and requests the Economic and Social Council and the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization to make such provisions as will ensure that the terms of office of four members elected by the two Councils respectively shall expire in each calendar year;

"8. Further requests the Economic and Social Council and the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization, when electing members of the Intergovernmental Committee, to take into account the need for balanced representation of economically developed and developing countries and other relevant factors such as the representation of potential participating countries, both contributing and recipient, equitable geographical distribution, and the representation of both developed and developing countries having commercial interests in international trade in foodstuffs, especially those highly dependent on such trade:

"9. Requests a review of the general regulations of the Programme in the light of the present resolution and calls upon the Economic and Social Council and the Council of the Food and Agriculture Organization to take appropriate action."

*1399th plenary meeting,
23 November 1965.*

1095 (XXXIX). Report of the Trade and Development Board

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 1995 (XIX) of 30 December 1964, and Council resolutions 1000 and 1011 (XXXVII) of 20 and 24 July 1964,

Having considered the annual report of the Trade and Development Board,¹

Conscious of the great contribution which the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development can make to the solution of the development problems of the developing countries and the problems of international trade in general,

1. Notes with satisfaction the progress the Trade and Development Board of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development has made in establishing its own work programme and the terms of reference and work programmes for its subsidiary committees as outlined in the report of the Board;

2. Notes further with satisfaction that arrangements are already in progress to ensure a close working relationship between the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, the regional economic commissions and the United Nations Economic and Social Office in Beirut, the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency;

3. Transmits the annual report of the Trade and Development Board to the twentieth session of the General Assembly and draws its attention to the comments and observations contained in the supplementary report of the Economic and Social Council on its resumed thirty-ninth session.²

*1399th plenary meeting,
23 November 1965.*
