

(d) To consider or encourage the production of documentary or dramatic programmes (see paragraph 3 (f) above) relating to human rights, and the reading of the text of the Declaration, on radio or television;

(e) To promote the performance or exhibition, in connexion with the fifteenth anniversary, of notable musical, dramatic or artistic works which are illustrative of the themes of human rights and fundamental freedoms (see paragraph 4 (c) above);

(f) To consider the possibility of granting special honours or awards in 1963 to persons who have made outstanding contributions to the promotion of human rights;

(g) To display on 10 December 1963 the United Nations flag on public buildings, which might be illuminated;

(h) To reproduce and distribute United Nations posters on human rights themes, including the posters selected by UNESCO at its international contest in 1962 (see paragraph 3 (g) above);

(i) To reproduce and distribute the United Nations poster on the Declaration (see paragraph 3 (g) above).

III. NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS

7. It is suggested that non-governmental organizations, international or national:

(a) Adopt the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, or articles thereof, as appropriate, as the themes of their annual or special conferences in 1963;

(b) Organize commemorative ceremonies on the fifteenth anniversary of the Declaration;

(c) Print and distribute the text of the Declaration, and prepare and publish pamphlets, leaflets and posters on the Declaration;

(d) Establish awards, if possible, to honour persons who have distinguished themselves in the field of human rights;

(e) Organize community projects, such as panel discussions on local problems of human rights, children's parades and display of the United Nations flag in school and business buildings;

(f) Encourage local communities to establish a list of questions with a view to investigating and sounding out public opinion as to the communities' effectiveness in promoting the principles of the Declaration.

8. It is further suggested:

(a) That special religious services be held on the fifteenth anniversary of the Declaration;

(b) That radio and television networks carry special programmes, and newspapers publish editorials, on the fifteenth anniversary of the Declaration, the text of the Declaration to be read or reprinted in whole or in part, if possible (see paragraph 6 (d) above); that information media organize public debates on great issues of freedom;

(c) That schools and universities hold special assemblies on 10 December 1963 and organize courses or seminars on human rights (see paragraph 6 (b) above);

(d) That research institutions and universities consider the publication of historic declarations of human rights, famous bills of rights and great orations and speeches on human rights, with appropriate commentaries or annotations.
